

Contents

Preface to the First Edition by Dr A. A. Brill (1947)	13
Foreword to the Third Edition	15
Foreword to the Second Edition	17
Author's Foreword	19
Introduction	23

Part One Normal Development

Chapter One

What People Have to Work with

1. Can people be judged by their appearance?	31
2. Where does human energy come from?	34
3. What is the brain for?	40
4. Why people act and feel the way they do	45
5. How emotions change experience	53
6. How people differ from one another	59
Footnotes for Philosophers	62

Chapter Two

What People are Trying to Do

1. What is a human being?	65
2. What human beings are looking for	66
3. Which urges are the most powerful?	68

Contents

4. The problem of a human being	72
5. How do human beings express their urges?	75
6. How do people handle their surroundings?	84
7. How does a human being grow and change?	87
8. Why do human beings control themselves?	91
9. How does a human being make a decision?	93
10. To whom the good of all this?	97
Footnotes for Philosophers	99

Chapter Three

The Growth of the Individual

1. What is the difference between a grown-up and a child?	103
2. What does a newborn baby think about?	105
3. The emotional development of the nursing child	107
4. How does the child learn to behave himself?	111
5. The little boy and the little girl	117
6. Getting along with people	120
7. When does sex begin?	123
8. How does the child react to his parents' behaviour?	126
Footnotes for Philosophers	133

Chapter Four

Dreams and the Unconscious

1. What is the unconscious?	135
2. What is in the unconscious?	141
3. Why do people dream?	143
4. Interpreting dreams	150
5. What is sleep?	153
Footnotes for Philosophers	156

Part Two Abnormal Development

Chapter Five

Neuroses

1. How can emotions cause physical disease?	159
2. How can emotions cause physical pain?	167
3. What is psychosomatic medicine?	171
4. What is neurotic behaviour?	173
5. What is a neurotic symptom?	176
6. The different kinds of neuroses	180
7. What causes neuroses?	190
Footnotes for Philosophers	193

Chapter Six

Psychoses

1. What is insanity?	195
2. The different kinds of psychoses	210
3. What causes psychoses?	216
Footnotes for Philosophers	217

Chapter Seven

Alcohol, Drugs, and Some Behaviour Disorders

1. The different kinds of drinking	219
2. What is a narcotic addict?	229
3. The things people can become addicted to	231
4. How can an addict be cured?	235
5. What about delirium tremens?	238
6. What is a sociopath?	240
7. What is sexual perversion?	247
8. What is masturbation?	247

Contents

9. What is homosexuality ?	249
10. What are transexuals and transvestites ?	254
Footnotes for Philosophers	256

Part Three Methods of Treatment

Chapter Eight

Psychotherapy

1. What is 'going to a psychiatrist' ?	263
2. What is psychoanalysis ?	267
3. How psychoanalysis is carried on	267
4. What happens during an analysis ?	271
5. Who should be psychoanalysed ?	273
6. Who was Freud ?	275
7. Freud and his followers	277
8. What is hypnotism ?	280
9. Other approaches	285
10. What is group therapy ?	289
11. What is family therapy ?	295
Footnotes for Philosophers	297

Chapter Nine

Transactional Analysis

by John M. Dusay, M.D.

1. What is transactional analysis ?	302
2. What are its main theories ?	303
3. What happens in transactional analysis ?	311
4. Transactional analysis in action	321
5. The history and future of transactional analysis	328
Footnotes for Philosophers	330

Chapter Ten

Allied Professions

A. Psychiatric Social Work, by Mary Edwards, M.S.W.
1. What is a psychiatric social worker?	334
2. What is psychiatric social work training?	335
3. How does a psychiatric social worker differ from other psychotherapists?	335
B. Psychiatric Nursing, by Hilma B. Dickson, R.N., B.S.
1. What is a psychiatric nurse?	337
C. Pastoral Counselling, by Muriel James, Ed.D.
1. What is pastoral counselling?	341
2. What is the training for pastoral counsellors?	342
3. Where do people go for counselling?	342
4. What happens in pastoral counselling?	343
D. Community Psychiatry, by W. Ray Poindexter, M.D.
1. What is community psychiatry?	344
2. What the five psychiatric services offer	344
3. Why a community psychiatrist can be useful	346
4. How can psychiatry help industry?	347
Footnotes for Philosophers	348

Chapter Eleven

Drugs and Other Methods

1. The older drugs	350
2. Who discovered snakeroot?	351
3. The kinds of 'tranquillizers'	353
4. What about 'truth serum'?	356
5. What about shock treatments?	358
6. What are brain waves?	361

Contents

7. What is an air encephalogram?	363
Footnotes for Philosophers	364

Chapter Twelve

Practical Questions

1. How to choose a doctor	367
2. Can mental illnesses be cured?	374
Footnotes for Philosophers	376

Appendix

Beyond Science

1. What about fortune-tellers?	380
2. What is intuition?	383
3. How does intuition work?	387
4. What is extrasensory perception?	391
5. How does extrasensory perception work?	393
Footnotes for Philosophers	395

Word List	397
Name Index	409
Subject Index	413