

CONTENTS

Introduction. Medieval Art in Central Europe in Outlines Waldemar Deluga – Daniela Rywiková	7
Un manuscrit enluminé du XIIIe siècle à Olomouc Pavol Černý	11
The Passional of Abbess Cunigund: Old Theme, New Approaches Hana Runčíková	27
Contemplare in plagam ... “Gaze into the wound” – New Discoveries relating to the Passional of Abbess Cunegund Jennifer Vlček Schurr	37
Art and Devotion in the Female Religious Communities of Late Medieval Český Krumlov Daniela Rywiková	61
Fabián Pulér: Between the Gothic and the Renaissance Ema Součková	87
Different Reasons for the use of Gothic and Renaissance Style in Central European Architectural Sculpture between the years 1490–1550 Petr Čehovský	101
Czech Reformed Homiletics and its Visual Reflection in 15th and 16th Century Central European Church and Chapel Interiors Jana Grollová	119
The Art of National Minorities in the former Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth Waldemar Deluga	129

Architectural Background as a Message: A Case from the Akathistos Cycle in the Lavriv Monastery Nazar Kozak	155
Family Coats of Arms on the Iconostasis: Iconic and Conventional Signs Svitlana Olianina	171
Constructing the Catholic Middle Ages in the Process of the Production of Catholic National Identity in Contemporary Poland Teresa Pac	187
Bibliography	203
Index	255