

Contents

Acknowledgements	7
Chapter 1. Domestic Sources of European Foreign Policy: Politicisation, Contestation and the EU Neighbourhood	9
Magdalena Góra, Natasza Styczyńska & Marcin Zubek
Chapter 2. Conceptualising and Analysing the Contestation of the EU as an Actor in the ENP: Actorness, Effectiveness and Beyond ...	31
Arne Niemann & Nils Hoffmann
Chapter 3. Democracy vs Imperialism: The Dutch Referendum on the EU-Ukraine Agreement	53
Hans Vollaard
Chapter 4. Who Wants a United Europe? Interests, Identities, and the Prospects for Future European Union Enlargement	79
Aleksandra Sojka
Chapter 5. Opening the Floodgates? Migration as a Catalyst for Domestic Contestations of Enlargement	105
Jamie E. Scalera
Chapter 6. Slow and Big or Say No to the Devil: Party-based Euroscepticism and the Future of EU Enlargement	133
Petr Kaniok & Vít Hloušek
Chapter 7. Closed until Further Notice: Eurosceptic European party groups of the EP and EU Enlargement Policy Contestation, 2004-2014	159
Natasza Styczyńska

Chapter 8. National Interests or Ideologically Driven? Patterns of Contestation of the European Neighbourhood Policy in the European Parliament 181
Magdalena Góra

Chapter 9. The European Parliament and the conflicted EU Neighborhood – Extinguishing the “Ring of Fire”, or Letting It Burn? 209
Marcin Zubek

Chapter 10. Religion in the European Parliament’s Discourse on Enlargement and the European Neighbourhood Policy 231
Katarzyna Zielińska

Chapter 11. Contestation of the EU’s Relations with Its Neighbourhood? What Have We Learnt, and Where Does Research Go from Here? 259
Magdalena Góra

Annexes

Annex 1. EP plenary debates on European Neighbourhood Policy (ENP) selected for analysis (2005-2014) 275

Annex 2. EP plenary debates on EU Enlargement (EnL) selected for analysis (2005-2014) 279

Annex 3. Party groups in European Parliament (6th-8th term) 283

Contributors 287