

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix
About the Editor xi
Contributors xiii

Introduction 1
Scott Barry Kaufman

PART I Identification

1. Finding and Serving Twice Exceptional Students: Using Triaged Comprehensive Assessment and Protections of the Law 19
Barbara (Bobbie) Jackson Gilman and Dan Peters
2. Using a Positive Lens: Engaging Twice Exceptional Learners 48
Susan Baum and Robin Schader
3. Finding Hidden Potential: Toward Best Practices in Identifying Gifted Students with Disabilities 66
Edward R. Amend
4. Misconceptions about Giftedness and the Diagnosis of ADHD and Other Mental Health Disorders 83
Deirdre V. Lovecky
5. Knowns and Unknowns about Students with Disabilities Who Also Happen to Be Intellectually Gifted 104
Steven I. Pfeiffer and Megan Foley-Nicpon

PART II Supporting Twice Exceptional Students

6. How We Can Recognize and Teach Twice- or Multi-Exceptional Students 123
Susan Winebrenner
7. Twice Exceptionality and Social-Emotional Development: One Label, Many Facets 138
Judy Galbraith

8. Advocating for Twice Exceptional Students 146
Rich Weinfeld
9. It Takes a Team: Growing Up 2e 156
Mary Ruth Coleman, Lois Baldwin, and Daphne Pereles
10. Educating the Twice Exceptional Child: Creating Strong
School-to-Home Collaborative Partnerships 177
Kevin Besnoy
- PART III Special Populations
11. Attention Divergent Hyperactive Giftedness: Taking the Deficiency and Disorder out of the Gifted/ADHD Label 191
C. Matthew Fugate
12. Appreciating and Promoting Social Creativity in Youth with Asperger's Syndrome 201
Matthew D. Lerner and Rebecca M. Girard
13. The Spectrum of Twice Exceptional and Autistic Learners and Suggestions for Their Learning Styles 213
Richard O. Williams and Jeffrey Freed
14. Visuo-Spatial Skills in Atypical Readers: Myths, Research, and Potential 229
Maryam Trebeau Croghan, Jeffrey W. Gilger, and Fumiko Hoeft
15. Gifted Dyslexics: MIND-Strengths, Visual Thinking, and Creativity 266
Susan Daniels and Michelle Freeman
16. Being 3e, A New Look at Culturally Diverse Gifted Learners with Exceptional Conditions: An Examination of the Issues and Solutions for Educators and Families 278
Joy Lawson Davis and Shawn Anthony Robinson
17. Where the Rubber Meets the Road: Supporting the Educational Success of Twice Exceptional African American Students 290
Renae D. Mayes, Erik M. Hines, and James L. Moore III

PART IV Models

18. Bridges Academy: A Strengths-Based Model for 2e 301
Carl A. Sabatino and Christopher R. Wiebe

19. Integration and Dynamic Adaptation in the Formation of a Novel 2e School Model 322
Kimberly Busi and Kristin Berman

Index 341