

CONTENTS

1	Introduction	1
	Matthew Smith, Vicky Long, Oonagh Walsh and Despo Kritsotaki
2	Imagination and the Prevention of Violence: Fredric Wertham, Mass Media and Mental Hygiene, 1946–1958	39
	Dennis Doyle
3	‘They May Strike Back at Society in a Vengeful Manner’: Preventing the Psychological Scars of Acne in Post-war America	61
	Iain Ferguson
4	Preventing Mental Illness, Preventing Delinquency: Juvenile Justice and Child Psychiatry in Post-war America	87
	Erin J. Lux
5	Social and Mental Hygiene: Models of Mental Illness Prevention in Twentieth-Century Greece (1900–1980)	111
	Despo Kritsotaki

6	Socialism, Society, and the Struggle Against Mental Illness: Preventative Psychiatry in Post-war Yugoslavia Mat Savelli	131
7	The History of Suicide Prevention in Finland, 1860s–2010s Mikko Myllykangas	151
8	Risk Assessment in an Age of Neoliberalism: John Monahan's The Clinical Prediction of Violent Behavior (1981) Matthew Gambino	171
9	American Psychiatry in Transition: Reform or Revolution? Lucas Richert and Matthew DeCloedt	187
10	Designing for Mental Health: Psychiatry, Psychology and the Architectural Study Project Edmund Ramsden	209
11	Newgenics and the Politics of Choice: A Historical Look at Canada's Psychiatric Institutions in the 1970s Erika Dyck	237
12	Preventing Male Mental Illness in Post-war Britain Ali Haggett	257
	Index	281