

CONTENTS

Preface	v
List of Cases, European Legal Sources and Materials	xiii
List of Contributors	xxv

Introduction

Jan VON HEIN, Eva-Maria KIENINGER and Giesela RÜHL	1
1. Background and Aim	1
2. Organisation and Findings	5
3. Conclusion and Outlook	14

PART I. EUROPEANNESS OF LEGAL SOURCES

The Relationship between EU Legislation and International Instruments in the Field of Private International Law

Pietro FRANZINA	19
1. Putting EU Legislation into Context	20
2. A Relationship of Subordination, Interplay and Confrontation	26
3. The Increasingly Important External Dimension of EU Private International Law	44
4. How European is EU Private International Law?	49

Regulations and Conventions: A Comment on the Sources of European Union Private International Law

Jürgen BASEDOW	53
1. A Survey of the Sources	53
2. Conflicts Legislation through Regulations or Conventions?	54
3. Enhanced Cooperation – A Third Best?	55
4. The Relationship between Conventions and Regulations in the Courts	57
5. European Union Conflicts Regulations and Uniform Law Conventions	58
6. The Jurisdiction of the Court of Justice	59

Interaction between EU Regulations and Member State Codification of Private International Law: From Patchwork to Network

Johan MEEUSEN.....	61
1. Introduction	62
2. The Framework of this Chapter	67
3. Facilitators for a Smooth Interaction between EU Regulations and Member State Codification	71
4. Obstacles to a Smooth Interaction between EU Regulations and Member State Codification	76
5. The Member States' Contribution to the Smooth Interaction between EU Regulations and National Codification.....	90
6. The EU's Contribution to the Smooth Interaction between EU Regulations and Member State Codification	104
7. Requirements for a Transparent, Effective and Harmonious Network of Private International Law	106

A View from the Trenches on EU and Member State Private International Law

Jan VON HEIN.....	111
1. Introduction	112
2. The Absence of a 'General Part' of EU Private International Law	114
3. Personal Status, Family Law and Successions.....	121
4. Commercial Law.....	130
5. Conclusion.....	135

PART II. EUROPEANNESS OF COURT PRACTICE

The Application of European Private International Law and the Ascertainment of Foreign Law

Marta REQUEJO ISIDRO	139
1. Introduction	140
2. The Top-Down Approach: The EU Legislator	140
3. The Top-Down Approach: Case-Law.....	148
4. Spontaneous Incorporation of the European Factor by the Member States?	155
5. The Scholars' Views	158
6. Assessment.....	161

When Should EU Private International Law Require that Foreign Law be Applied?

Paul BEAUMONT.	177
1. Introduction	177
2. The Universal Application of EU Private International Law Instruments on Applicable Law.	178
3. The High Costs of Making and Maintaining Reliable Public Databases	178
4. Parties Should Decide Whether Foreign Law is Relevant and Whether to Pay the Costs of Proving It	179
5. Failure to Tackle the Issue at the Global Level in the Hague Conference.	181
6. Case Study on the Complexities of Proving Foreign Law: Wall v. Mutuelle de Poitiers Assurances	183

The Application of European Private International Law by National Judges: Challenges and Shortcomings

Agnieszka FRĄCKOWIAK-ADAMSKA.	185
1. Introduction	185
2. Knowledge of European Private International Law	186
3. Knowledge of EU Principles Governing Relations between EU and National Law	193
4. National Judges as Guardians of Fundamental Rights.	195
5. National Judges as Guardians of the Rule of Law.	197
6. Conclusions	202

The Application of European Private International Law by National Judges: Making the Job Easier

Michael HELLNER	205
1. Lack of Training and Textbooks	205
2. Private International Law is Complicated	208
3. Some Suggestions for Improvements	211

A Common Discourse in European Private International Law?

A View from the Court System

Xandra KRAMER	215
1. Introduction	215
2. Why a European Court Practice? A Means to an End.	217

3. The Dialogue between National Courts and the Court of Justice	221
4. Judicial Infrastructures and Private International Law	225
5. Private International Law and Emerging International Commercial Courts	230
6. European Idealism and Challenges	233

National Court Systems and Uniform Application of European Private International Law

Pedro A. DE MIGUEL ASENSIO	235
1. Structure of National Court Systems and Judicial Cooperation in Civil Matters	235
2. Demand for Special Courts: General Perspectives	237
3. Cross-Border Cases as a Subject Area for Specialised Courts?	239
4. Flexible Means of Achieving Concentration	243
5. National Courts and their Dialogue with the Court of Justice	245
6. Other Factors Influencing Uniformity	247
7. Judicial Training, Access to Information and Adaptation of the Judicial Infrastructure	248
8. Conclusions	251

PART III. EUROPEANNESS OF ACADEMIC DISCOURSE

National Styles of Academic Discourse and their Impact on European Private International Law: A View from France

Sabine CORNELOUP	255
1. Introduction	255
2. The Impact of National Academic Styles on the Discourse	261
3. The Impact of European Private International Law on National Styles	268

National Styles of Academic Discourse and their Impact on European Private International Law: A Portuguese Perspective

Dário MOURA VICENTE	273
1. The Problem Defined	273
2. A Policy Issue: The Need for a European Private International Law	274
3. The Notion of 'Academic Discourse'	275
4. 'National Styles' of Academic Discourse in Europe	276

5. The Impact of National Styles of Academic Discourse on European Private International Law.....	280
6. Conclusion.....	284

Political Private International Law: How European are Overriding Mandatory Provisions and Public Policy Exceptions?

Marc-Philippe WELLER and Alix SCHULZ.....	285
---	-----

1. Introduction	286
2. Implicit Ways to Enforce Political Interests.....	287
3. Explicit Ways to Enforce Political Interests.....	289
4. Public Policy (Ordre Public)	290
5. Overriding Mandatory Provisions	296
6. Conclusions	303

Public Policy and Overriding Mandatory Rules as Mirrors of the EU System of Thought and Integration: On the 'Europeanness' of Exceptions and Oddities

Stéphanie FRANCO	305
------------------------	-----

1. Introduction	305
2. The 'Odd' Part of Private International Law and the Reasons for its Traditional Limitation.....	308
3. A New Rationale for Limiting the Use of Public Policy: The Diageo Brand Case	310
4. Foreign Overriding Mandatory Rules as a Test Case for Integration	316
5. 'Exit and Voice' in European Private International Law	329
6. Conclusion.....	331

Private International Law in Legal Education in Europe and Selected Other Countries

Thomas KADNER GRAZIANO.....	333
-----------------------------	-----

1. Introduction	334
2. Private International Law in Law School Curricula.....	335
3. On-the-Job Training: The Course Programme Offered by the European Law Academy	345
4. Potential Consequences of these Findings and Available Options	346
5. How to Teach Private International Law? A Proposal.....	348
6. An Illustration of the Proposal	350

7. And if there were a Coherent and Comprehensive EU Private International Law Regulation?	353
8. Proposals	354
 Should European Teachers Focus on European Private International Law?
Gilles CUNIBERTI.	355
1. Introduction	355
2. The Difference between Primary and Continuing Legal Education	356
3. Continuing Legal Education and European Private International Law	357
4. Primary Legal Education and European Private International Law	358
Index	363