

CONTENTS

Preface

List of abbreviations

Map of Pakistan

Introduction

1

1 The demand for Pakistan, 1940–1947 9

2 Pakistan's share of the spoils 25

The question of sovereignty 26

The administrative legacy 29

The division of the financial assets 32

The division of the armed forces 37

The economics of defence 44

3 Constructing the state 49

I

The strategic and economic consequences of partition 50

The Kashmir dispute 56

Central imperatives 60

Provincial concerns 78

II

Defence and the national economy 93

The emergence of institutional imbalances 100

4	Wielding state power: politicians, bureaucrats and generals	13
	Fencing for the centre	13
	Domestic scuffles and international compromise	18
5	Breaking down the political system, 1954–1958	19
	The constitutional imbroglio	19
	Railing the political system	20
	Centre-province disequilibrium	22
	The economy of alliance	23
	The state under political siege	29
6	State and society in the balance: Islam as ideology and culture	21
	Accommodating the state in Pakistani society: the uses of Islam as ideology	21
	An uncertain resource: Islam as culture in Pakistani society	21
7	The state of martial rule, 1958 to the present: towards a conceptual framework	21
	Glossary
	Select bibliography
	Index	