

Contents

Figures, Maps and Tables	viii
Foreword	x
Abbreviations	xii
Introduction: The Media and Change	1
Other Media Revolutions	1
The Carolingian Reformation	3
Industrial Revolution and Economy of the Sign	6
PART I: Gutenberg before Gutenberg	9
1 The Preconditions for a New Economy of the Media	11
The Key Space of Modernity: The Town	11
The Market in Education	21
The Emergence of the Political	28
2 The Economy of the Book	36
Manuscript Production	37
Change: The Contents	42
Change: The Objects and Practices	46

3	The Birth of the Market	57
	The Market and its Regulation	57
	The Religious Paradigm, or the Emergence of the Masses	61
	Writing: Work and the Professions	70
PART II:	The Age of Start-ups	81
4	The Development and Logics of Innovation	83
	Paper and Papermaking	85
	Xylography	88
	Punches, Forms and Moulds	95
5	Gutenberg and the Invention of Printing	106
	Historical Portrait of a City	106
	Strasbourg	111
	The Return to Mainz	117
6	Innovation	126
	Techniques: Process Innovation	126
	Practices	130
	The Society of the Workshops	145
	The Invention of the Graphosphere	158
PART III:	The First Media Revolution	163
7	Printing Conquers the World	165
	The Spread of the Innovation	165
	Ranking the Cities	175
	Conjunctures and Specializations: The Market and Innovation	186
8	The Nature of Text	204
	The Book System	206
	The Meaning of the Text	219
	The 'Book-Machine'	234

9 The Media Explosion	238
A New Paradigm: Production and Reproduction	238
The Reformation and Printing	248
Regulation: Imposing Order on Books	257
Printing and Governments	267
Conclusion	269
Chronologies	269
Semiology and Virtuality	270
Product and Market	272
Gutenberg's Europe	273
Notes	275
Index	302