

Contents

Preface 9

Chapter 1 Introduction 11

Guido Biessen and Sweder van Wijnbergen

PART I Accomplishments in the First Decade 17

Chapter 2 Macroeconomic Progress 19

Nicholas Stern and Marina Wes

- 2.1 Introduction 19
- 2.2 The experience in the first decade 23
- 2.3 Macroeconomic instability, structural reforms and reversals 32
- 2.4 International capital flows and contagion 37
- 2.5 Going forward 42
- 2.6 Conclusions 44

Chapter 3 Transition and Institutional Change 49

Marko Bos, George Gelauff and Ruud de Mooij

- 3.1 Introduction 49
- 3.2 Institutions and economic performance 50
- 3.3 Institutional change in Central and Eastern Europe 54
- 3.4 Challenges for the future 66

Chapter 4 Opening Up 73

Guido Biessen, Harry Oldersma and Nicolette Tiggeleove

- 4.1 Introduction 73
- 4.2 Foreign trade 74
- 4.3 Foreign capital movements 79
- 4.4 Dutch bilateral relations with Central and Eastern Europe 83
- 4.5 Conclusions 93

PART II Enlargement of the European Union 97

Chapter 5 Time for Enlargement 99

Hans van den Broek

- 5.1 Introduction 99
- 5.2 We must be doing something right 100
- 5.3 The criteria 103
- 5.4 What could delay enlargement on the side of the candidates? 107
- 5.5 What could delay enlargement on the side of the EU? 108
- 5.6 Conclusion 111

Chapter 6 The Transition to EU Membership in Central and Eastern Europe 113

Jim Rollo and Alasdair Smith

- 6.1 Introduction 113
- 6.2 The EU membership process 116
- 6.3 The acquis and transformation 118
- 6.4 The acquis, open borders, and the case for transition periods 128
- 6.5 Conclusions 130

Chapter 7 Joining EMU 135

Arnout Wellink

- 7.1 Introduction 135
- 7.2 Monetary relations before EU membership 136
- 7.3 Preconditions for stable monetary relations 140
- 7.4 Monetary relations after EU accession 146
- 7.5 Concluding remarks 148

Chapter 8 Portugal's Accession to the European Union 153

Abel Mateus

- 8.1 Introduction 153
- 8.2 The Pre-accession period: a country in a state of flux (1977-85) 154
- 8.3 The negotiations 156
- 8.4 The economy in the aftermath of the accession (1986-91) 163
- 8.5 Gearing-up to monetary union (1992-98) 164
- 8.6 Assessing the impact of participation in the European Union 166
- 8.7 Conclusions 168

Chapter 9 Enlargement of the European Union: A Polish Perspective 171

Dariusz Rosati

- 9.1 Introduction 171
- 9.2 A short history of the accession process: 1989-1999 172
- 9.3 Benefits and costs of EU eastern enlargement 174

- 9.4 From Euro-euphoria to Euro-scepticism: the rise and fall of popular support for EU accession in Poland 187
- 9.5 The current status of accession negotiations between Poland and the EU 189
- 9.6 Concluding remarks 190

Chapter 10 Enlargement of the European Union: A Hungarian Perspective 193
András Inotai

- 10.1 Introduction 193
- 10.2 From association to negotiations on full membership 194
- 10.3 Negotiations on accession in progress 197
- 10.4 Key forthcoming issues 200
- 10.5 Political support, public opinion 206

PART III Russia and Ukraine 209

Chapter 11 Russia: A Lost Decade? 211

Daniel Gros

- 11.1 Introduction 211
- 11.2 Setting the stage 213
- 11.3 Price liberalisation with a 'Big Bang' 216
- 11.4 External liberalisation 220
- 11.5 Macroeconomic instability 224
- 11.6 Who lost Russia? 227
- 11.7 Conclusions 231

Chapter 12 Liberalisation and Economic Development in Ukraine 235

Victor Pynzenyk

- 12.1 Introduction 235
- 12.2 Ukrainian economic development 235
- 12.3 Ukrainian reform perspectives 244
- 12.4 Conclusions; lessons of Ukraine 245

Chapter 13 The Integration of Russia and Ukraine into the World Trading System 249

Constantine Michalopoulos

- 13.1 Introduction 249
- 13.2 Patterns of trade and policy reform 250
- 13.3 WTO accession 262
- 13.4 The status of Russia's and Ukraine's negotiations for WTO accession 265
- 13.5 Challenges for the future 271

Chapter 14 Conclusions 277

Guido Biessen and Frans Engering

List of Abbreviations 287

About the Authors 289

Chapter 6

The Transition to Membership

Eastern Europe: public opinion and support

Jon Rallo and Alexander Smith

1.1 Introduction 293

1.2 The EU membership process 293

1.3 The accession process 293

1.4 The accession process 293

1.5 The accession process 293

Chapter 7

From 'Big Bang' to 'Big Bang' 301

Andreas Weller

1.1 Introduction 301

1.2 Macroeconomic instability 301

1.3 Monetary system 301

1.4 Monetary system 301

1.5 Monetary system 301

Chapter 8

Portugal's Accession to the EU 305

Andreas Weller

1.1 Introduction 305

1.2 The accession process 305

1.3 The negotiations 305

1.4 The accession process 305

1.5 The accession process 305

Chapter 9

Enlargement of the EU 309

Andreas Weller

1.1 Introduction 309

1.2 The accession process 309

1.3 The accession process 309