

Contents

List of figures and tables	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction: Contested knowledge of ageing. Stepping out to frame the larger picture	1
IRIS LOFFEIER, BENOÎT MAJERUS AND THIBAUD MOULAERT
PART I
Future at the heart of the ageing region	17
1 Demographic change as dystopia: Contemporary German discourses on ageing, between science and politics	19
REINHARD MESSERSCHMIDT
2 Recommendations concerning the use of physical exercise to improve the wellbeing of older people in France	45
CÉCILE COLLINET AND MATTHIEU DELALANDRE
3 ‘Regimes of hope’ in planning later life: Medical optimism in the field of anti-ageing medicine	60
MARK SCHWEDA AND LARISSA PFALLER
PART II
Defining boundaries, defining insiders and outsiders	77
4 Nationalism and the moral economy of ageing	79
MAGNUS NILSSON

- 5 Sexual assistance, suicide assistance and the condition of dependent older adults 95
ALEXANDRE LAMBELET

- 6 Toward a biopolitics of old age: Vulnerability and aging in postwar France 111
RICHARD C. KELLER

PART III

Bridges between science and policy 129

- 7 Connecting categories: Age, gender and archaeologies of knowledge 131
NICOLE KRAMER

- 8 The breakdown of consensus on pro-natalist policies: Media discourse, social research and a new demographic agreement 149
ANTÍA PÉREZ-CARAMÉS

- 9 The social construction of dependency controversies around an assessment instrument in France 166
NICOLAS BELORGEY

PART IV

Experiencing, playing, shifting boundaries 187

- 10 Discerning ageing in relation to the law? Debates on the legal framework of freedom of movement of the elderly in France between 2004 and 2015 189
LUCIE LECHEVALIER HURARD AND BENOÎT EYRAUD

- 11 Different initial training, different professional practices? Latitude and interprofessionality in dependency assessment 204
JINGYUE XING AND SOLÈNE BILLAUD

- 12 Shaping old age: Innovation partnerships, senior centres and billiards tables as active ageing technologies 222
ASKE JUUL LASSEN

List of contributors 237

Index 241