

CONTENTS

1. The Group of Writers Around the Půlnoc Series (1949–1955):
a Specific Example of Underground Cultural Activities /7
  2. Underground and “Under-the-ground” /25
  3. Charter 77 and the Underground /42
  4. Ideological Orientation and Political Views and Standpoints of Representatives of Czech Underground Culture, 1969–1989
(Underground and Dissidence – Allies or Enemies?) /63
  5. The Theme of “Apocalypse” as a Key Building
Block of Underground Literature During the Period of “Normalization” /85
  6. Exploring Modern Art: Czech Underground
Rock Musicians /104
  7. The Types and Functions of Samizdat Publications in Czechoslovakia, 1948–1989 /131
  8. Three Examples of a Variety of Relations Between Czech Samizdat and “Tamizdat” Book Production of the 1970s and 1980s /161
  9. My Itinerary Has Been Monotonous for Quite a While:
Magor’s Swan Songs /173
  10. Report on the Third Czech Musical Revival by Ivan Martin
Jirous – Its Origins, Structure and Function /185
- Selected Bibliography – Discography – Filmography /212
- Underground Music /233
- Documentary Films /235
- Author’s Note /237
- Index of Names /244