

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction by Joseph R. Gusfield 1

I THE FORM OF SOCIAL ACTION

- 1 The Nature of Human Action 53
- 2 The Human Actor: Definition of Man 56

II LANGUAGE AS SYMBOLIC ACTION

- 3 Symbolic Action 77
- 4 Types of Meaning: Semantic and Poetic Meaning 86
- 5 The Symbol as Formative 107
- 6 Language as Action: Terministic Screens 114
- 7 Motives as Action 126

III DRAMATISTIC ANALYSIS

- 8 Dramatistic Method 135
- 9 Ways of Placement 139
- 10 Vocabularies of Motive 158

IV RHETORICAL ACTION

- 11 Identification 179
- 12 Terms of Rhetoric 192
- 13 Rhetorical Analysis 211

V DIALECTICAL METHOD

- 14 The Paradox of Substance 235
- 15 Irony and Dialectic 247
- 16 Perspective by Incongruity: Comic Correctives 261

- 17 The Transformation of Terms 268
- 18 Transcendence 273

VI SYMBOLS AND THE SOCIAL ORDER

- 19 Order and Hierarchy 279
- 20 Terms for Order 282
- 21 Sin and Redemption 294
- 22 Ideology and Myth 303

References in Burke Readings 317

Bibliography: Kenneth Burke 319

Index 323