

CONTENTS

List of illustrations	ix
List of contributors	x
Acknowledgments	xviii
1 Understanding Arctic security: what has changed? What hasn't? Gunhild Hoogensen Gjörv, Marc Lanteigne, and Horatio Sam-Aggrey	1
2 The Arctic peace projection: from Cold War fronts to cooperative fora Alan K. Henrikson	13
PART I
Theorizing Arctic security	27
3 Applying conventional theoretical approaches to the Arctic Barbora Padrtova	29
4 Assessing security governance in the Arctic Andrew Chater, Wilfrid Greaves, and Leah Sarson	43
5 Arctic security in international security Rasmus Gjedssø Bertelsen	57
6 Security as an analytical tool: human and comprehensive security approaches to understanding the Arctic Gunhild Hoogensen Gjörv	69

7	Indigenous security theory: intersectional analysis from the bottom up Rauna Kuokkanen and Victoria Sweet	80
8	Energy security in the Arctic Magnus DeWitt, Hlynur Stefánsson, and Ágúst Valfell	91
9	Environmental security in the Arctic: shades of grey? Horatio Sam-Aggrey and Marc Lanteigne	102
10	Economic security: employment policy needs for rural and remote communities Gordon B. Cooke and Bui K. Petersen	114
PART II
	The Arctic powers: “Arctic Five” and “Arctic Eight”	127
11	Arctic security perspectives from Russia Alexander Sergunin	129
12	Arctic security: the Canadian context Heather Exner-Pirot and Rob Huebert	140
13	US security policy in the American Arctic Michael T. Corgan	152
14	Security perspectives from Norway Kristian Åtland	165
15	Denmark and Greenland’s changing sovereignty and security challenges in the Arctic Jon Rahbek-Clemmensen	176
16	Small state, big impact?: Iceland’s first National Security Policy Page Wilson and Auður H. Ingólfssdóttir	188
17	Security perspectives from Finland: an Arctic case Lassi Heininen	198
18	Security perspectives from Sweden Niklas Eklund	208

PART III

Security in the Arctic through governance

- 19 The Arctic Council: soft actions, hard effects? 221
Piotr Graczyk and Svein Vigeland Rottem
- 20 Science diplomacy and the Arctic 234
Rasmus Gjedssø Bertelsen
- 21 Geopolitics and international law in the Arctic 246
Bjarni Már Magnússon and Charles H. Norchi
- 22 Geopolitics, security, and governance 258
Klaus Dodds
- 23 Security issues in the Svalbard area 270
Tobjørn Pedersen
- 24 Arctic coast guards: why cooperate? 283
Andreas Østhagen
- 25 Legal reform, governance, and security in the Russian Arctic 295
Aytalina Ivanova and Gail Fondahl

PART IV

Non-Arctic states, regional, and international organizations

309

- 26 Considering the Arctic as a security region: the roles of China and Russia 311
Marc Lanteigne
- 27 Japan and Arctic security 324
Wrenn Yennie-Lindgren
- 28 Security aspects in EU Arctic policy 337
Adele Airoidi
- 29 NATO, the OSCE, and the Arctic region: European security organizations and the High North 348
Benjamin Schaller and Horatio Sam-Aggrey

PART V

People, states, and security

30	Indigenous peoples Wilfrid Greaves	363
31	Human security, extractive industries, and Indigenous communities in the Russian North Florian Stammeler, Kara K. Hodgson, and Aytalina Ivanova	377
32	The role of indigenous local knowledge (ILK) in enhancing Indigenous security in the Mackenzie Valley, Northwest Territories, Canada Horatio Sam-Aggrey	392
33	Gender and intersectional approaches to security in the Arctic Gunhild Hoogensen Gjorv, Embla Eir Oddsdóttir, and Fern Wickson	406
34	Food security across the circumpolar region Kamrul Hossain, Thora M. Herrmann, and Dele Raheem	417
35	The widening spectrum of Arctic security thinking Gunhild Hoogensen Gjorv and Marc Lanteigne	427
	Index	432