

CONTENTS

Table of Cases	xxv
Tables of Legislation	xxxi
Tables of European Legislation	xlix
Table of Treaties and Conventions	lv
List of Abbreviations	lvii
Editors and Contributors	lxix
Introduction	1

I FINANCIAL SERVICES AND MARKETS

1. Financial Services Authority

UK Financial Reform	1.07
Regulatory function	1.08
Financial Services and Markets Act	1.11
Regulatory transfer	1.14
Statutory framework	1.17
Rules and guidance	1.20
Financial Services Authority	1.24
Constitution	1.25
General duties	1.45
Statutory objectives	1.47
Supervisory principles	1.54
Rules	1.56
Enforcement	1.72
Accountability	1.79
Treasury oversight and appointment	1.82
Treasury review	1.84
Treasury inquiries	1.85
Public meetings	1.88
Practitioner Panel	1.89
Consumer Panel	1.90
Board and committee structure	1.91
Complaints	1.92

Good governance	1.93
Tribunal	1.95
Appeal	1.98
Judicial review	1.99
Operations	1.100
Restructuring	1.102
Costs and staff	1.112
Functions	1.113
Agency relations	1.114
Policy Development	1.115
Policy base	1.116
Policy publications	1.132
Memoranda of Understanding	1.134
Financial stability	1.135
UK Memoranda of Understanding	1.148
Bilateral and multilateral Memoranda of Understanding	1.149
Financial Stability	1.151
Financial stability and depositor protection	1.152
US sub-prime crisis	1.154
Financial Stability Forum	1.155
UK response	1.157
Policy recommendations	1.160
 2. The Financial Services and Markets Act
Genesis of FSMA	2.01
Structure	2.02
Framework	2.04
Sources of complexity	2.05
The FSA's general duties and other statutory functions	2.13
Other bodies and their functions	2.17
Scope	2.22
Regulated activities	2.29
Exemptions	2.41
Financial promotions and misleading statements	2.46
Territorial scope	2.56
Markets	2.62
Miscellaneous	2.63
Confidentiality and disclosure	2.63
Relationship to external legislation	2.70

Evolution	2.75
Two-year review	2.76
Further developments	2.79

3. European Financial Services

Introduction	3.01
Breach of Community obligations	3.06
Direct effect	3.07
Sources of Community law	3.09
Impact on UK law	3.12
Implementation: Copy-out v gold-plating	3.15
Establishing the Single Market in Financial Services	3.18
Commission White Paper on Completing the Internal Market	3.19
Financial Services Action Plan	3.22
Lamfalussy Report	3.25
Lamfalussy: banking and insurance	3.29
After the FSAP	3.30
Dominant themes	3.31
Single Market Legislation—Banking	3.35
Second Banking Directive	3.36
Post-BCCI Directive	3.40
Capital Directives	3.42
Capital Requirements Directive	3.43
Consolidated supervision	3.45
Financial Conglomerates Directive	3.46
Single Market Legislation—Insurance	3.48
Life assurance	3.50
Non-life assurance	3.51
Consolidated supervision of insurance groups	3.53
Reinsurance	3.54
Solvency II	3.55
Single Market Legislation—Collective Investment Schemes	3.57
UCITS	3.57
UCITS amending directive	3.58
Single Market Legislation—Investment Services	3.60
Investment Services Directive	3.60
Markets in Financial Instruments Directive ('MiFID')	3.71
Single Market Legislation—Compensation	3.79
Deposit insurance and investor compensation	3.79
Insurance	3.85
Compensation and group supervision	3.86

Consumer Protection	3.87
Consumer protection directives	3.88
Definition of consumer	3.89
Distance Marketing Directive	3.90
Electronic Commerce Directive	3.93
Unfair Contract Terms Directive	3.95
Single Market Legislation—Issuer Disclosure	3.96
Prospectus Directive	3.100
Transparency Directive	3.105
Corporate Governance	3.107
Takeover Directive	3.108
Accounting Directives	3.109
Directive on Shareholders' Rights	3.110
One share, one vote	3.111
Insider Dealing and Market Abuse	3.112
Market Abuse Directive	3.114
Money Laundering	3.119
Third Money Laundering Directive	3.121
 4. International Agreements and Supranational Bodies
Global Markets, Local Regulation	4.01
International Bodies and International Agreements	4.05
The World Trade Organisation and Financial Services	4.19
WTO Agreements	4.23
Dispute Resolution under WTO Proceedings	4.27
Financial Services under the WTO	4.33
Regional Trade Agreements	4.55
The Security and Prosperity Partnership of North America	4.65
Global Bankers—the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund	4.72
The Bank for International Settlements	4.99
The Basel Committee	4.117
The Basel Accord	4.121
Basel II	4.123
Financial Stability Institute	4.138

The Committee on Payment and Settlement Systems	4.140
Securities and the International Organisation of Securities Commissions	4.152
Joint Forum	4.170
The Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development	4.173
The Financial Action Task Force	4.180
IASB and International Accounting Standards	4.186
The Financial Accounting Standards Board	4.191
Sarbanes-Oxley and its Impact on Non-US Entities	4.196
Global Regulatory Convergence—The Credit Crunch and the Role of Supranational Bodies in Creating Financial Stability in the Global Market	4.207
Financial Stability Forum and the Credit Crunch	4.209
The IMF as the Lender of Last Resort	4.213
The Global Economy and the Future of Supranational Bodies	4.217

II FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION

5. FSA Handbook and High-Level Standards

Introduction	5.01
What is the Handbook?	5.01
Current pressures on the Handbook	5.04
What material goes into the Handbook?	5.09
An overview of the structure and content of the Handbook	5.10
High-Level Standards and Principle-based Regulation	5.11
A brief history of regulation by reference to high-level standards	5.11
High-level standards in the Handbook	5.15
High-level rules in European financial services legislation	5.18
Principle-based regulation	5.19
What are ‘principles’?	5.22
Practical limitations on principle-based regulation	5.23
The relationship between principles and other FSA rules	5.26
Principles and statutory obligations	5.32
Principles and consistency of outcome	5.34
Principle-based regulation and legal challenge	5.39
Consistency in decision-making by the regulator	5.41

Handbook Components	5.51
The powers exercised to make the material re-stated in the Handbook	5.51
Rules	5.52
Breach of rules	5.59
Evidential provisions	5.60
Effect of breach on non-authorised persons and transactions	5.61
Private rights of action for contravention of a rule	5.63
Incidental and supplementary powers	5.64
Waiver and modification of rules	5.65
Statements of principle, codes, directions, and requirements	5.69
Directions	5.73
General guidance and individual guidance	5.74
Other public material published by the FSA and industry guidance	5.77
The effect of guidance, other FSA public material, and confirmed industry guidance	5.79
Handbook Processes	5.84
The FSA's legislative functions	5.84
Consultation	5.91
Cost-benefit analysis	5.95
Purpose	5.96
Compatibility with the general duties	5.97
Consultation periods and implementation	5.100
Publication	5.102
Reduced consultation on guidance	5.103
Competition scrutiny	5.104
Interpretation of the Handbook	5.109
 6. Regulatory Processes—Authorisation, Supervision, Enforcement
Authorisation	6.01
Authorised and exempt persons	6.01
Is authorisation required?	6.04
Who can be authorised?	6.06
Consequences of authorisation	6.07
The authorisation process	6.09
Variations and cancellations	6.18
Application procedure	6.19
The application forms	6.25
Application fees	6.57
Determining applications	6.58
Supervision Process	6.60
A risk-based approach	6.60
Supervisory tools	6.71

Enforcement Processes	6.73
Relevant statutory provisions	6.73
The Financial Services and Markets Tribunal	6.92
The FSA Handbook and enforcement matters	6.95
FSA procedures	6.104
7. Financial Redress—Complaints, Disputes, and Compensation
Introduction: Regulatory Objectives	7.01
Routes to Financial Redress	7.06
Claims for financial redress outside FSMA	7.06
Claims for financial redress under FSMA	7.14
Complaint Handling by Firms	7.41
DISP	7.41
Financial Ombudsman Service	7.62
Introduction	7.62
The scheme operator	7.65
The operation of FOS	7.71
DISP—jurisdiction of FOS	7.81
FOS procedures	7.91
Voluntary jurisdiction	7.106
Funding	7.109
FOS's experience	7.117
FOS—cases arising	7.118
Challenges to FOS	7.122
FOS—the two-year review, DISP simplification, and the Hunt Report	7.127
Financial Services Compensation Scheme	7.136
Introduction	7.136
The Scheme Manager	7.139
The Scheme	7.141
Provisions of the Scheme	7.145
The COMP Rules	7.150
Recovery of cost of compensation	7.214
Financial Stability and Depositor Protection	7.232
8. Market Abuse
Background to the Introduction of the Market Abuse Regime	8.01
Introduction	8.01
Market abuse provisions in FSMA intended to fill a legislative 'gap'	8.02

The failure of legislation adequately to protect against market misconduct	8.03
The failure of high-profile prosecutions to bring to justice those suspected of market misconduct offences	8.05
The Market Abuse Directive	8.09
Access to and fairness of information	8.10
The Nature of the Market Abuse Regime and Underlying Processes	8.15
Introduction	8.15
European Court of Human Rights—clarification of criminal offences	8.16
The significance of the distinction between criminal and civil offences	8.17
Burden of proof and the standard of proof applicable to the market abuse offence	8.26
The privilege against self-incrimination as it relates to the market abuse offence	8.37
European Convention on Human Rights—obligations on public authorities	8.38
The Market Abuse Offences	8.52
The definition of market abuse in Part VIII FSMA and the impact of MAD on the market abuse regime	8.52
Scope of the definition of market abuse in section 118	8.64
The seven types of behaviour constituting market abuse	8.74
Requiring and encouraging	8.79
Definitions for the purposes of the market abuse provisions concerning the use of information	8.80
Market abuse offences that concern the use of information	8.98
Flow Chart—offences relating to the use and disclosure of information	8.138
Types of market abuse that concern market manipulation and false or misleading behaviour	8.139
Statutory exceptions	8.157
Principles-based Approach	8.158
Discovering and Punishing Market Abuse	8.166
Suspicious transaction reporting	8.166
Appropriate reporting—practical issues	8.167
Protected disclosures	8.170
Interrelation with reports to SOCA	8.171
Sanctions and enforcement policy	8.173
Enforcement policy	8.179
European Developments	8.193
ESME report—market abuse EU legal framework and its implementation by Member States: a first evaluation—6 July 2007	8.194

HM Treasury and the FSA's discussion paper considering the European Commission review of commodity and exotic derivatives	8.197
ESME July 2008 Advice—commodity/exotic derivatives	8.200
Electricity and gas markets	8.203
 9. Insider Dealing, Misleading Statements and Practices
Introduction	9.01
CJA Insider Dealing	9.02
The criminal law—insider dealing	9.02
Criminal Justice Act 1993, Part V	9.03
Territorial scope	9.04
The offences	9.05
Having 'inside information' as an 'insider'	9.14
Defences	9.27
Penalties and prosecution	9.37
Key steps in proving CJA insider dealing	9.38
Cases	9.39
Flow chart	9.45
Misleading Statements and Practices	9.46
Section 397 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000: misleading statements and practices	9.46
Misleading statements	9.48
Misleading practices	9.51
Territorial scope	9.53
Sanctions	9.54
Relevant investments and relevant agreements	9.56
No civil law right of action under section 397 FSMA	9.57
Effectiveness of the offences	9.58
Other Regulatory Provisions Relating to Undesirable Market
Conduct	9.71
Introduction	9.71
Other requirements	9.72
Regulatory and Prosecuting Bodies	9.85
Interaction between the various regulatory and prosecuting bodies with powers relating to market misconduct	9.85
Overview of the UK's prosecuting bodies	9.86
Other powers of review, enquiry, and discipline	9.94
Interaction between the FSA and other prosecuting bodies	9.99
 10. Money Laundering and Financial Crime
What is Money Laundering?	10.01

Placement	10.04
Layering	10.05
Integration	10.06
United Kingdom Policy Drivers	10.07
The UK's Fight against Money Laundering: The Policy Backdrop	10.12
International Nature of the Fight against Money Laundering	10.14
The Financial Action Task Force	10.17
The 40 Recommendations	10.24
Terrorist financing	10.26
Identifying and responding to new threats	10.27
FATF and the UK	10.29
Non-co-operative countries and territories	10.30
Law and Regulation	10.32
Other Developments Driving EU Legislation	10.33
The First and Second Money Laundering Directives	10.35
The Third Money Laundering Directive	10.44
Customer due diligence	10.46
Beneficial owner	10.49
Simplified due diligence	10.53
Enhanced due diligence	10.56
Politically exposed persons	10.60
Performance by third parties	10.66
Reporting obligations	10.69
Record keeping	10.75
Enforcement and implementing measures	10.78
The European Regulation on FATF Special Recommendation 7	10.82
UK Legislation	10.88
Proceeds of Crime Act 2002	10.88
The Terrorism Act 2000 ('TA') (as amended by the Anti-terrorism Crime and Security Act 2001)	10.128
Changes to POCA Introduced by SOCPA	10.134
Case law and POCA	10.137
The Money Laundering Regulations 2003	10.142
The Money Laundering Regulations 2007	10.145
The FSA Anti-money Laundering Regime	10.178
Risk-based regulation	10.183
Registered businesses	10.192
Supervision	10.210
Enforcement	10.212

Power to impose civil penalties	10.215
Criminal offences	10.221
Taking Money Laundering Seriously	10.223
FSA Rules Relating to Anti-money Laundering	10.227
FSA Enforcement	10.233
Themes from FSA Final Notices	10.235
The Joint Money Laundering Steering Group Guidance Notes	10.240
The status of the JMLSG Guidance Notes	10.241
The revised JMLSG Guidance	10.242
JMLSG Guidance—risk-based regulation	10.245
Identifying and assessing the risks	10.249
Design and implementation of controls	10.253
Monitor and improve operation of control	10.256
Judging firms against their own standards	10.262
JMLSG Guidance—CDD	10.263
JMLSG Guidance—Suspicious activities, reporting, and data protection	10.274
JMLSG—Record-keeping, procedures, and training	10.279
Overview	10.289
Appendix I: Financial Services Authority Handbook (Extracts)	543
Appendix II: Summary of UK Legislation	546
11. Integrated Prudential Regulation
Background/History	11.01
The history of prudential standards	11.03
The Interim Prudential Sourcebooks	11.07
The structure of the Interim Prudential Sourcebooks	11.11
The Integrated Prudential Sourcebook	11.14
Problems in implementation	11.14
The New Prudential Sourcebook Structure	11.19
Application to Lloyd's	11.22
Capital resources requirement	11.23
MIPRU	11.26
UPRU	11.28
IPRU(BANK)	11.29
IPRU(BSOC)	11.30
IPRU(FSOC)	11.31
Effective Prudential Regulation	11.32

III FINANCIAL SECTORS AND ACTIVITIES

12. Investment Firms—Wholesale Sector

Evolution	12.01
The Anderson Report	12.05
The Bodkin Report	12.08
Prevention of Fraud (Investments) Acts 1939/1958	12.10
Review of investor protection—the Gower Report	12.13
Investment Services Directive 1993	12.22
Financial Services and Markets Act 2000	12.30
Markets in Financial Instruments Directive	12.37
Rules of conduct	12.41
Principles for Businesses	12.47
Scope of regulation	12.54
Clients and Commissions	12.55
Eligible counterparty business	12.58
Special conduct regimes	12.60
Senior management responsibilities	12.61
Client classification	12.64
Agent as client	12.68
Terms of business	12.72
Inducements and dealing commission arrangements	12.75
Inducements	12.77
Dealing commission	12.86
The current dealing commission regime	12.95
Financial Promotions and Client Communications	12.97
The financial promotions restriction	12.100
Communication rules	12.105
Appropriateness	12.107
Advising customers	12.124
Suitability	12.125
Disclosure of charges, remuneration, and commission	12.141
Misconduct in securities offerings	12.142
FSA guidance	12.146
Dealing in Securities	12.150
Conflicts of interest	12.152
Other restrictions	12.155
Best execution	12.156
Investment Research	12.199
FSA consultation	12.200
FSA guidance	12.205
Market Abuse Directive	12.206

Clients' Assets	12.210
Custody rules	12.213
Segregation and internal controls	12.214
Terms of business	12.217
Custody	12.219
Stock lending	12.220
Collateral	12.221
Client money	12.222
Operational issues	12.225
Trustees	12.230
Takeovers and Listing Rules	12.231
Takeovers	12.232
Independence	12.234
Prohibited dealings	12.237
Disclosure of dealings	12.241
Dealings by 1 per cent shareholders	12.245
Telephone campaigns	12.250
Dealings by exempt principal traders	12.251
Listing rules (sponsors)	12.253
FSA approval	12.256
Sponsors' obligations	12.259
 13. Investment Firms—Retail Sector
Introduction	13.01
General Principles of Conduct for Investment Firms	13.09
The New Conduct of Business Sourcebook ('COBS')	13.17
COBS: General issues	13.17
Case Law on Retail Investment Business	13.97
Retail Distribution Review	13.119
 14. Banks and Banking
Introduction	14.01
UK Banking Supervision	14.08
Bank of England	14.09
Overseas banks and secondary banking crisis	14.12
Banking Act 1979	14.15
Johnson Matthey and the Banking Act 1987	14.17
BCCI and Barings	14.19
Northern Rock	14.22

Bank of England Act 1998	14.25
Constitution and regulation	14.26
Financial arrangements	14.27
Transfer of functions	14.28
Additional provisions	14.29
Financial Services and Markets	14.30
General prohibition	14.33
Permission	14.41
Authorisation	14.45
Promotions	14.52
Approved persons	14.55
Handbook of Rules and Guidance	14.68
Bank authorisation	14.71
High-level standards	14.76
Banking Supervision	14.85
Supervisory approach (SUP 1)	14.93
Information (SUP 2)	14.104
Auditors (SUP 3)	14.108
Actuaries (SUP 4)	14.112
Skilled persons report (SUP 5)	14.113
Part IV permission, variation, or cancellation (SUP 6)	14.115
Individual requirements (SUP 7)	14.117
Waiver and modification of rules (SUP 8)	14.118
Individual guidance (SUP 9)	14.120
Approved persons (SUP 10)	14.123
Controllers and close links (SUP 11)	14.126
Appointed representatives (SUP 12)	14.129
Passport rights (SUP 13)	14.131
Incoming firms (SUP 14)	14.133
Notifications (SUP 15)	14.135
Reporting requirements (SUP 16)	14.138
Transaction reporting (SUP 17)	14.139
Integrated Prudential Regulation	14.141
Basel II and Basel III	14.145
Capital Requirements Directive	14.160
Prudential Sourcebook	14.171
General Prudential Sourcebook (GENPRU)	14.184
Prudential Sourcebook (BIPRU)	14.191
Application—BIPRU 1	14.192
Capital—BIPRU 2	14.193

Standardised Credit Risk Approach—BIPRU 3	14.197
IRB Approach—BIPRU 4	14.199
Credit Risk Mitigation—BIPRU 5	14.200
Operational Risk—BIPRU 6	14.202
Market Risk—BIPRU 7	14.203
Group Risk—BIPRU 8	14.206
Securitisation—BIPRU 9	14.209
Concentration Risk—BIPRU 10	14.214
Disclosure—BIPRU 11	14.215
Counterparty Risk—BIPRU 13	14.216
Unsettled Transactions and Free Deliveries—BIPRU 14	14.218
Northern Rock	14.220
Credit crisis	14.221
Northern Rock	14.226
Regulatory response	14.228
Treasury acquisition	14.231
Financial stability	14.235

15. Home Finance Transactions

Supervision and Regulation of Building Societies	15.03
Building societies before FSMA	15.05
Building societies under FSMA	15.12
The Regulation of Home Finance Transactions	15.15
Regulated mortgage business	15.15
Pressure to extend the scope of regulation	15.25
Home reversion plans and home purchase plans	15.29
Hybrid home finance products	15.38
The requirement for home finance providers to use authorised intermediaries	15.39
Prudential requirements for home finance firms	15.43
Professional indemnity insurance requirements for home finance mediation firms	15.44
Capital requirements	15.47
Capital requirements for firms to which MIPRU applies	15.49
Conduct of Business requirements for home finance firms	15.52
Business customers	15.53
Pre-contractual arrangements made by a home finance provider	15.56
Responsible lending	15.58
Advising and selling	15.61
Disclosure	15.63
Charges	15.67

Arrears and repossessions	15.68
Post-contract charges and arrears	15.70
16. Insurance Regulation
Introduction	16.01
History and Background	16.07
Insurers	16.07
Intermediaries and brokers	16.09
European Union Law	16.23
Insurers and reinsurers	16.28
Insurance intermediaries	16.61
Competition issues	16.73
UK Law and Regulation—The Legislation	16.78
Contracts of insurance	16.80
Regulated activities	16.97
Other aspects of insurance legislation	16.139
UK Regulation—the FSA Handbook	16.151
Introduction	16.151
Business standards	16.195
Prudential standards—insurers	16.265
Prudential standards—insurance intermediaries	16.325
Cross-border business	16.336
The regulation of the Lloyd's insurance market	16.341
UK Regulation—FOS and FSCS	16.350
17. Collective Investment Schemes
Introduction	17.01
Investment funds and collective investment schemes	17.01
The European dimension and OEICs	17.03
Basic Definitions	17.07
General	17.07
Definition of 'Collective Investment Scheme' (CIS): FSMA, section 235	17.08
Definition of Open-Ended Investment Company (OEIC): FSMA, section 236	17.61
'Unit trust scheme'	17.78
Regulatory Categorisation of CISs	17.84
Introduction: the terminology	17.84
(UK) Authorised unit trust schemes (AUTs)	17.88
(UK) Authorised open-ended investment companies (ICVCs)	17.96

(Overseas) Recognised CISs	17.105
'Unregulated' CISs	17.121
Application of FSMA to CISs	17.124
General	17.124
Section 19: Regulated activity	17.126
Restrictions on financial promotion	17.129
FSA Handbook	17.141
Introduction	17.141
Regulated collective investment schemes	17.143
Collective investment schemes in general	17.151
18. Listing and Public Offers
The Listing Review and Implementation of Related Directives in the UK	18.01
Background	18.01
Structure and format	18.13
Offers to the public and prospectuses	18.20
Disclosure Rules	18.101
Transparency Rules	18.119
Corporate governance	18.141
Listing Rules	18.145
19. Islamic Financial Services
Introduction	19.01
Islamic finance firms	19.01
The scope and limits of Islamic finance regulation	19.02
The regulation of IFFs in the United Kingdom	19.07
The regulation of Islamic capital markets	19.10
International regulatory bodies	19.12
Islamic finance regulation in other jurisdictions	19.16
The legal effect of international standards	19.18
Shari'a Principles	19.20
Introduction	19.20
Sources and authorities	19.22
The main Shari'a principles relevant to Islamic finance	19.24
The enforceability of Shari'a in the English courts	19.33
Shari'a Compliant Financial Products and Services	19.38
Techniques for developing Shari'a compliant products and services	19.38
Money acceptance arrangements	19.39
Deferred payment arrangements	19.41

Profit sharing arrangements	19.45
Capital market arrangements	19.47
Mutual assistance arrangements	19.48
Some miscellaneous arrangements	19.49
The Authorisation of IFFs	19.55
A non-discriminatory regime	19.55
AAOIFI standards as best practice guidelines for establishing an IFF	19.56
Prudential Standards for IFFs	19.57
The 'Islamic Window'	19.64
The Shari'a Supervisory Board	19.68
Introduction	19.68
The regulation of an IFF's SSB	19.70
Compliance with AAOIFI Governance Standards to demonstrate compliance with senior management systems and controls requirements?	19.74
The Regulatory Classification of Shari'a Compliant Products and Services	19.76
CIS regulation and Shari'a compliant arrangements	19.76
Money acceptance arrangements as 'deposits'	19.81
Profit sharing investment accounts as 'deposits'	19.83
Islamic mortgages	19.86
The regulatory classification of other financing arrangements	19.89
Sukuk	19.92
Shari'a compliant derivatives	19.99
Takaful	19.100
Regulating an IFF's Conduct of Business	19.102
Introduction	19.102
Financial promotion and disclosure	19.103
The suitability of Shari'a compliant investments	19.107
Special considerations for IFFs offering Islamic mortgages	19.108
Special considerations for IFFs offering PSIAs	19.111
The Listing and Public Offer of Shari'a Compliant Securities	19.113
The Classification of Sukuk	19.113
Disclosure standards	19.115
Continuing obligations	19.116
Index	1027