

Contents

1 Introduction	1
The changing management role	1
Assertiveness in management	2
How to use this book	5
PART I
2 Concepts	8
What is assertiveness?	8
Recognising four types of behaviour	8
Directly aggressive behaviour	10
Indirect aggression	12
Passive behaviour	15
Assertive behaviour	17
3 Method	22
Active listening	22
Guidelines	23
The core phrase	25
Body language	27
Proxemics	28
Stance and the 'tanden'	30
Gesture	31
Facial expression	32
Personal style	33

Voice quality	35
Showing empathy	36
Avoiding 'hooks'	36
Fallback position	39

4 Putting it all together: assertiveness workshop	41
Step 1: Recognising four different types of behaviour	41
Step 2: Setting your own agenda	43
Step 3: A Bill of Rights	44
Step 4: Contact your strength	46
Step 5: Active listening	47
Step 6: Core phrase work	48
Step 7: Personal style	49
Step 8: Body and voice exercise	50
Step 9: Breathing well	50
Step 10: Assertiveness role play	52
Step 11: Identifying a speaking partner	55

PART II

5 Meetings	59
Roles	60
Chairing	60
Making a presentation	63
Participating	66
Representing	68
Types of meetings	69
Large meetings	69
One-to-one meetings	70
Project development meetings	73
Marketing meetings	75
Policy meetings	76
Common problems	77
Interruptions	77
Silent meeters	78
Reaching closure on time	79
6 Management at high tension	81
Saying 'no'	82
What will the other person feel?	82
What will the consequence be?	82
Will the refusal be taken seriously?	83
Saying a clear 'no'	84

Embarrassing personal issues	85
Body odour	86
Sexual behaviour	87
Excessive drinking	89
Managing personality clashes	91
Supporting staff with discipline and complaints	92
Righteous anger – necessary confrontations	93
Managing an angry onslaught	94
Coping with violence	95
Making staff redundant	96
Giving the message	97
Dealing with the reaction	97
Giving reasons (if appropriate) and offering information on rights	98
Escorting the person from the building	99
Keeping remaining staff informed	99
Getting support for yourself	100

7 Leadership	101
Power within	102
Being promoted	104
Communication in leadership	107
Sharing the plan	107
Walking the job	108
Getting your boss to agree	109
Self-management	110
Urgent or important?	111
Who's holding the problems?	112
Mens sana	113
Action-centred leadership	114
Leadership actions	114
Motivation	119
8 Coping with criticism, enjoying praise	123
Receiving criticism well	123
Do you agree?	124
Learning how to 'fog'	125
Identifying your 'crumple-buttons'	127
Adding an assertive rider	128
Coping with praise well	129
Cultural embarrassment	129
Doubting the source	129
Fearing a backlash	129

Appraisal systems	130
Giving critical feedback assertively	132
Giving positive feedback assertively	133
9 Assertiveness in equal opportunities and cross-cultural work	134
Equal opportunities issues	135
Dealing assertively with negative reactions	135
Dealing assertively with positive reactions	137
Standing your ground	137
International assertiveness	140
France	140
Germany	140
Italy	141
The Netherlands	142
Spain	143
Belgium	144
Denmark	144
Greece	144
Portugal	145
The USA	146
Japan	147
In your own back yard	148
10 Applied assertiveness workshop	150
Step 1: Positive visioning	150
Step 2: Breaking the spell	151
Step 3: Saying 'no' assertively	152
Step 4: Clear refusals and fudged refusals	153
Step 5: Disarming anger	153
Step 6: Coping with your own worst nightmare	155
Step 7: Blocks to power within	156
Step 8: Force field analysis	156
Step 9: Agreeing and disagreeing with criticism	157
Afterword	160
Further reading	161