

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|                                                                     |      |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| Tables and figures .....                                            | xi   |
| Note on the Treaties.....                                           | xiv  |
| About the authors.....                                              | xv   |
| Acknowledgements .....                                              | xvi  |
| Forewords, by Martin Schulz, Jean-Claude Juncker, Donald Tusk ..... | xvii |

I: THE FRAMEWORK

|                                                                 |    |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| Chapter 1. The Parliament in context .....               | 3  |
| From fig-leaf to co-legislature.....                            | 4  |
| A federal system? .....                                         | 9  |
| The style of Parliament .....                                   | 11 |
| Chapter 2. How it is elected .....                       | 13 |
| Moving towards direct elections.....                            | 13 |
| Attempts to draw up a uniform electoral system .....            | 15 |
| Key issues in drawing up the electoral system.....              | 17 |
| – (i) The nature of the electoral system.....                   | 17 |
| – (ii) Conditions applying to candidates.....                   | 20 |
| – (iii) The right to vote .....                                 | 24 |
| – (iv) Other issues related to voting .....                     | 25 |
| – (v) Finance .....                                             | 26 |
| – (vi) The number of seats.....                                 | 26 |
| The European elections so far.....                              | 31 |
| Chapter 3. Where, when and in quale lingua .....         | 35 |
| The seat issue: where the Parliament meets.....                 | 35 |
| – Historical background .....                                   | 37 |
| When: Parliament's cycle of activities .....                    | 42 |
| In quale lingua: languages within the European Parliament ..... | 43 |

II: THE ACTORS AND WORKING STRUCTURES

|                                                |    |
|------------------------------------------------|----|
| Chapter 4. The individual members ..... | 52 |
| Background of the individual members .....     | 52 |
| – Turnover and length of service .....         | 52 |
| – Gender balance .....                         | 55 |

|                                                                             |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| – Ethnic and linguistic minority MEPs .....                                 | 57  |
| – Average age of MEPs.....                                                  | 57  |
| – National parliamentary and ministerial experience .....                   | 58  |
| – Other political experience .....                                          | 61  |
| – Other experience.....                                                     | 62  |
| – Post-MEP experience .....                                                 | 63  |
| The role of individual members within Parliament.....                       | 66  |
| The work of an individual MEP: choice of priorities.....                    | 69  |
| Rights and obligations of individual members.....                           | 71  |
| – The Members' Statute .....                                                | 71  |
| – Incompatibilities and verification of credentials .....                   | 73  |
| – Facilities .....                                                          | 74  |
| – Salaries and allowances.....                                              | 74  |
| – Immunities.....                                                           | 76  |
| – Code of conduct and declaration of financial interests.....               | 79  |
| Members' assistants.....                                                    | 80  |
| – The Assistants' Statute.....                                              | 82  |
| Conclusion .....                                                            | 84  |
| Chapter 5. The Political Groups .....                                | 85  |
| Historical evolution.....                                                   | 87  |
| Composition of the Groups.....                                              | 95  |
| – Group of the European People's Party (Christian Democrats) (EPP) .....    | 95  |
| – Group of the Progressive Alliance of Socialists and Democrats (S&D) ..... | 101 |
| – European Conservatives and Reformists Group (ECR).....                    | 105 |
| – Alliance of Liberals and Democrats for Europe (ALDE) .....                | 110 |
| – Confederal Group of the European United Left/Nordic Green Left.....       | 114 |
| – Group of the Greens/European Free Alliance.....                           | 119 |
| – Europe of Freedom and Direct Democracy Group (EFDD) .....                 | 123 |
| – Europe of Nations and Freedoms (ENF) .....                                | 126 |
| – The non-attached members .....                                            | 128 |
| Changing Groups .....                                                       | 130 |
| Support provided by Parliament to Political Groups.....                     | 131 |
| Political Group staffing.....                                               | 131 |
| Structures of Groups .....                                                  | 133 |
| Working methods within the Groups .....                                     | 136 |
| Other political activities of the Groups .....                              | 136 |
| National party delegations.....                                             | 139 |
| Group discipline and whipping.....                                          | 141 |
| Power balances and relationships between the Groups.....                    | 143 |
| European political parties and federations.....                             | 145 |
| Chapter 6. Leadership structures .....                               | 151 |
| The President.....                                                          | 151 |
| The Vice-Presidents .....                                                   | 153 |

|                                                                                     |            |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| The Quaestors.....                                                                  | 156        |
| The election of the President, Vice-Presidents and Quaestors .....                  | 158        |
| The Conference of Presidents, the Bureau and the Quaestors .....                    | 164        |
| The Conference of Committee Chairs and the Conferenceof Delegation Chairs ..... | 165        |
| Chapter 7. The Parliamentary committees.....                                 | 167 |
| History, structure and character of committees .....                                | 167        |
| Membership of committees.....                                                       | 169        |
| Committee chairs and vice-chairs and their selection .....                          | 171        |
| – Role and powers of committee chairs.....                                          | 171        |
| – Election of committee chairs and vice-chairs and the d'Hondtsystem.....       | 171        |
| Group coordinators .....                                                            | 175        |
| Staff of committees .....                                                           | 175        |
| Place, time and character of meetings .....                                         | 176        |
| Committee business .....                                                            | 177        |
| – The “committee responsible” and opinion-giving committee(s).....                  | 178        |
| – “Own initiative” reports .....                                                    | 180        |
| – Volume and distribution of reports.....                                           | 182        |
| – Nomination of rapporteurs and draftsmen.....                                      | 184        |
| – Choices facing a rapporteur and evidence-gatheringfor a report.....           | 185        |
| – The progress of reports through a committee .....                                 | 189        |
| – Alternative and simplified procedures .....                                       | 191        |
| – Treatment of confidential documents in committee.....                             | 192        |
| Subcommittees, temporary committees and other ad hoc structures ....                | 194        |
| – Subcommittees.....                                                                | 194        |
| – Temporary or special committees.....                                              | 195        |
| – Other ad hoc structures .....                                                     | 198        |
| Conclusion .....                                                                    | 199        |
| Chapter 8. Interparliamentary delegations .....                              | 205 |
| The role of delegations.....                                                        | 205        |
| Historical development .....                                                        | 207        |
| Number and composition of delegations .....                                         | 208        |
| Leadership of the delegations.....                                                  | 209        |
| Parliamentary Assemblies.....                                                       | 211        |
| – The ACP-EU Joint Parliamentary Assembly .....                                     | 212        |
| – The Parliamentary Assembly of the Union for theMediterranean .....            | 213        |
| – The Euro-Latin American Parliamentary Assembly .....                              | 214        |
| – Euronest Parliamentary Assembly .....                                             | 215        |
| – Links with other interparliamentary bodies .....                                  | 215        |
| Election observation and other ad hoc delegations .....                             | 216        |
| Coordination with the rest of the Parliament .....                                  | 217        |
| Overall assessment .....                                                            | 218        |

|                                                                       |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Chapter 9. Plenary .....                                       | 219 |
| The setting.....                                                      | 219 |
| The typical timetable of a part-session.....                          | 222 |
| “Open” Bureau and Conference of Presidents .....                      | 224 |
| The plenary agenda.....                                               | 224 |
| – How the plenary agenda is drawn up .....                            | 224 |
| – Debates on breaches of human rights .....                           | 226 |
| – One minute speeches .....                                           | 226 |
| – Extraordinary debates .....                                         | 226 |
| – Formal sittings: addresses by Heads of State or similar .....       | 226 |
| The allocation of speaking time in debates .....                      | 230 |
| Voting .....                                                          | 233 |
| – Voting time.....                                                    | 233 |
| – Voting method .....                                                 | 233 |
| – Voting order .....                                                  | 235 |
| Building majorities: bargaining among Groups .....                    | 237 |
| Common procedural manoeuvres .....                                    | 238 |
| Order in the chamber .....                                            | 239 |
| Record of plenary sittings .....                                      | 241 |
| Concluding remarks.....                                               | 242 |
| Chapter 10. Intergroups .....                                  | 243 |
| The evolution of intergroups.....                                     | 243 |
| – MEP-industry forums.....                                            | 244 |
| Regulating intergroups.....                                           | 245 |
| Specific intergroups: some examples.....                              | 247 |
| – Intergroup on the Welfare and Conservation of Animals .....         | 247 |
| – Intergroup on LGBTI rights.....                                     | 249 |
| – Federalist intergroup (Spinelli Group) .....                        | 249 |
| – European Parliamentary Financial Services Forum.....                | 251 |
| – Disability intergroup.....                                          | 251 |
| Conclusion .....                                                      | 252 |
| Chapter 11. The Parliament secretariat .....                   | 253 |
| Overall size .....                                                    | 253 |
| Who are the staff of the Parliament? .....                            | 256 |
| – Where do they work? A geographically dispersed secretariat .....    | 258 |
| – How much do they earn? Staff salaries .....                         | 258 |
| – A changing administrative context: the rules governing staff .....  | 259 |
| The structure of the secretariat.....                                 | 260 |
| – Some key drivers of change.....                                     | 261 |
| – Specific structures: Who does what within the EP secretariat? ..... | 263 |
| Moving up and moving around: promotions and staff mobility .....      | 270 |
| The future of the secretariat .....                                   | 272 |

III: THE POWERS OF THE PARLIAMENT

|                                                                                          |     |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Chapter 12. The Parliament and legislation .....                                  | 276 |
| The Ordinary Legislative Procedure .....                                                 | 277 |
| – Commission proposal .....                                                              | 277 |
| – Prior scrutiny by national parliaments .....                                           | 277 |
| – First reading in the European Parliament .....                                         | 279 |
| – First reading in the Council .....                                                     | 279 |
| – Second readings .....                                                                  | 281 |
| – Conciliation and third readings .....                                                  | 281 |
| – Avoiding conciliation: first and second reading agreements .....                       | 284 |
| – The trilogue and its handling in Parliament .....                                      | 286 |
| – Advantages and disadvantages of first and second reading agreements .....              | 289 |
| – The impact of the co-decision procedure .....                                          | 290 |
| The consent procedure .....                                                              | 295 |
| – From assent to consent .....                                                           | 295 |
| – The growth of Parliament's powers over international agreements .....                  | 296 |
| The consultation procedure .....                                                         | 304 |
| – The Isoglucose judgment of 1980 and its repercussions .....                            | 304 |
| – The 1975 conciliation procedure .....                                                  | 306 |
| The cooperation procedure .....                                                          | 309 |
| Right to initiate legislation .....                                                      | 310 |
| – The Commission's Annual Work Programme .....                                           | 313 |
| Developments arising from the new legislative procedures .....                           | 315 |
| – Balance of Parliament's work .....                                                     | 315 |
| – Determination of the legal base of proposals .....                                     | 316 |
| – Re-consultation of Parliament .....                                                    | 317 |
| – More dialogue with the Council and Commission .....                                    | 317 |
| Pre- and post- legislative scrutiny .....                                                | 318 |
| Overall assessment .....                                                                 | 319 |
| Chapter 13. Budgetary powers .....                                                | 320 |
| Revenue .....                                                                            | 320 |
| Multiannual financial framework .....                                                    | 321 |
| The annual budgetary procedure .....                                                     | 322 |
| – Preparing for the draft budget .....                                                   | 324 |
| – Responding to the Council position on the draft budget .....                           | 326 |
| – The draft budget in Parliament .....                                                   | 327 |
| – Conciliation and agreement... or otherwise .....                                       | 330 |
| – Conflicting priorities .....                                                           | 282 |
| The budget procedure since Lisbon: one step forward and two steps back? .....            | 331 |
| Implementation of the budget .....                                                       | 332 |
| – Control of expenditure and the discharge procedure .....                               | 333 |
| – Consequences of a refusal to grant discharge – the fall of the Santer Commission ..... | 337 |

|                                                                                                     |            |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Conclusion .....                                                                                    | 338        |
| Chapter 14. Appointment and dismissal.....                                                   | 340 |
| Parliament, the appointment of the Commission and the electionof the Commission President ..... | 340        |
| – Appointment of the Juncker Commission.....                                                        | 345        |
| – Reshuffling of the Commission during its mandate.....                                             | 348        |
| Appointments to the European Central Bank.....                                                      | 348        |
| Appointments to the Court of Auditors .....                                                         | 351        |
| Appointment of the Ombudsman.....                                                                   | 352        |
| Appointments to EU agencies and authorities .....                                                   | 354        |
| Other appointments .....                                                                            | 359        |
| A limited role regarding appointments to the Courts.....                                            | 360        |
| The right of censure.....                                                                           | 361        |
| Chapter 15. Scrutiny and control of the executive .....                                      | 365 |
| General EP-Commission relations: the Framework Agreement .....                                      | 366        |
| Scrutiny through debates, questions and reports.....                                                | 367        |
| – Debates on statements .....                                                                       | 367        |
| – Parliamentary questions.....                                                                      | 368        |
| – Reports .....                                                                                     | 372        |
| – The Scientific and Technical Options Assessment (STOA) Panel .....                                | 373        |
| – Scrutiny in committees.....                                                                       | 374        |
| Control of expenditure and the discharge procedure.....                                             | 375        |
| Scrutiny of delegated legislation and implementing measures .....                                   | 375        |
| – The emergence and successive reforms of “comitology” .....                                        | 375        |
| – The 1994 “Modus Vivendi” .....                                                                    | 377        |
| – The 1999 reform.....                                                                              | 378        |
| – The “Lamfalussy procedure” .....                                                                  | 379        |
| – The 2006 breakthrough: the regulation procedure with scrutiny .....                               | 380        |
| – Delegated and implementing acts under the Lisbon Treaty .....                                     | 382        |
| – Handling delegated and implementing acts in Parliament.....                                       | 385        |
| Committees of Inquiry .....                                                                         | 386        |
| Judicial review.....                                                                                | 390        |
| Parliament and the application of European law in the Member States.....                            | 394        |
| Overall assessment .....                                                                            | 394        |
| Chapter 16. Parliament as a forum and its engagement with citizens.....                      | 395 |
| Parliament as a political forum: broadening the agenda .....                                        | 395        |
| Networking.....                                                                                     | 396        |
| – Contacts with the other EU institutions .....                                                     | 397        |
| – Contacts with individual governments .....                                                        | 398        |
| Openness, transparency and visibility .....                                                         | 399        |
| – Visibility of proceedings .....                                                                   | 400        |
| – Lobbyists and representatives of civil society .....                                              | 401        |
| – The media .....                                                                                   | 403        |
| Direct accessibility for citizens .....                                                             | 406        |

|                                                                                                                              |            |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| – Visitors .....                                                                                                             | 406        |
| – Petitions .....                                                                                                            | 408        |
| – The Ombudsman.....                                                                                                         | 411        |
| – European Citizens’ Initiative .....                                                                                        | 412        |
| Opening up to civil society .....                                                                                            | 413        |
| Activities in the field of human rights .....                                                                                | 414        |
| – Sakharov Priz .....                                                                                                        | 417        |
| Chapter 17: The EP and national parliaments .....                                                                     | 419 |
| Contact channels between the EP and national parliaments.....                                                                | 419        |
| COSAC and the other interparliamentary conferences .....                                                                     | 424        |
| The Parliamentary Assizes and the Conventions.....                                                                           | 426        |
| The Commission and national parliaments.....                                                                                 | 427        |
| National parliaments in the treaties .....                                                                                   | 427        |
| – The Lisbon Treaty provisions in practice .....                                                                             | 430        |
| Conclusions .....                                                                                                            | 431        |
| Chapter 18. Parliament and constitutional change .....                                                                | 434 |
| From the Draft Treaty on European Union to the Single European Act ..                                                        | 435        |
| From the Single European Act to Maastricht.....                                                                              | 437        |
| From Maastricht to Amsterdam.....                                                                                            | 439        |
| Salade Niçoise .....                                                                                                         | 443        |
| From the Convention via the Constitution to the Treaty of Lisbon .....                                                       | 445        |
| Post-Lisbon .....                                                                                                            | 449        |
| IV: APPENDICES                                                                                                        |            |
| 1. European Parliament elections .....                                                                                       | 452        |
| 2. Sources of information on the Parliament .....                                                                            | 465        |
| INDEX .....                                                                                                           | 470 |
| TABLES AND FIGURES                                                                                                    |            |
| Tables                                                                                                                |            |
| Table 1.1: Some main events in the Parliament’s history .....                                                                | 8          |
| Table 2.1: Electoral system used for 2014 European elections .....                                                           | 20         |
| Table 2.2: Non-nationals elected to European Parliament .....                                                                | 21         |
| Table 2.3: Evolution of the number of Members of the EuropeanParliament.....                                             | 27         |
| Table 2.4: Number of MEPs per country and ratio to population .....                                                          | 30         |
| Table 2.5: Distribution of seats in the European Parliament afterEuropean elections, enlargements and Lisbon Treaty..... | 30         |