

The 1998 Second Bill, an International Conference on Diplomatic History and Modest Results EE ... Lord Peter RICKETTS	79
CONTENTS
Foreword .....	v
Preface .....	xiii
Acknowledgments .....	xvii
List of Contributors .....	xxvii

Introduction: We Produce History; We Might as Well Use it, Wisely

I. William ZARTMAN .....	1
1. Historic Cases and the Inductive Approach.....	2
2. Historic Cases and the Deductive Approach.....	4
3. Historic Cases and the Counterfactual Approach.....	6

PART I. TO NEGOTIATE, OR NOT TO NEGOTIATE

Roman Diplomacy During the Republic: Do the Mighty Negotiate?

Ghislaine STOUDER .....	11
1. Negotiating in Rome: A Practice Not Seen in the Sources.....	12
2. The Ultimatum Issued to Carthage in 218 BCE, or the Refusal to Negotiate.....	13
3. Was Negotiating Foreign to Roman Culture? .....	15
4. Roman Critiques of the Principle of Negotiation Itself .....	17
5. Roman Negotiators: Military Leaders with Limited Powers .....	19

The Treaty of Dijon (1513): Or, the Art of Negotiating without a Mandate

Laurent VISSIÈRE .....	23
1. The Holy League versus France .....	24
2. The Best Defense of Dijon: Fight or Negotiate?.....	25
3. Analysis: A Negotiation but No Mandate.....	26

Diplomatic Crisis in July 1914: Secrecy, Ultimatums, and Missed Opportunities

Kevin HOMRIGHAUSEN .....	33
1. Austria-Hungary Plays the “Two-Level Game” and Receives a “Blank Cheque” from its German Ally .....	34
2. Austria-Hungary Delivers an Ultimatum to Serbia .....	35
3. Sir Grey’s Offer to Mediate Goes Unheeded .....	39
4. Consequences of Failed Diplomacy .....	41

The German “All or Nothing” Approach in 1917: Unwilling to Negotiate

Emmanuel VIVET.....	43
1. Increasing the Military Effort Rather than Negotiating .....	44
2. How Can the Parties’ Willingness (Not) to Negotiate be Explained? .....	46
3. The Cost of Lost Opportunities .....	51

PART II. BILATERAL NEGOTIATIONS

The Phoenicians (960 BCE): Long Distances, Close Business Relationships

Habib CHAMOUN and Randy D. HAZLETT.....	55
1. First Contact Sales or Silent Negotiation .....	56
2. Negotiations of King Hiram with the Hebrew Kings .....	57
3. Some Negotiation Principles from the Phoenicians .....	62
4. Conclusion: Putting Trust and Relationship First.....	64

Christopher Columbus and the Catholic Monarchs (1485–1492): Negotiating Troubled Waters

Nancy CALDWELL .....	67
1. Rebounding from a Failed Negotiation .....	68
2. Framing a New Negotiation Context .....	68
3. The Power of Perseverance.....	71
4. Generating Options for Mutual Gain .....	74

The 1998 St Malo Declaration on European Defense: High Ambitions, Modest Results

Lord Peter RICKETTS .....	79
1. After the Cold War: New Stirrings in European Security .....	80
2. The Approach March to St Malo .....	81
3. Anatomy of the St Malo Deal.....	82
4. Aftermath of St Malo: High European Ambitions .....	85
5. Why the Hopes of St Malo were Never Realized.....	86

US-Chile Free Trade Negotiations (2000–2003): Linkage Analysis

Larry CRUMP .....	89
1. The Proposal for a US-Chile Free Trade Agreement .....	90
2. FTA Negotiations.....	90
3. Linkage Analysis: Theoretical Framework.....	92
4. CUSFTA and Linkage Dynamics .....	93

Negotiating Peace with the FARC (2010–2016): Out of the Woods?

Frans SCHRAM .....	103
1. A History of Half-Ripe Moments and Half-Hearted Attempts....	104
2. The Costs of Lingering Armed Conflict Increase .....	105
3. Negotiations Take Shape.....	106
4. Ripening Minds and Rising Readiness.....	109
5. Peace for Colombia .....	113

PART III. MULTILATERAL NEGOTIATIONS

Constantinople, the Armies of the First Crusade and Alexius I Comnenus: How a Coalition was Built between Latins and Greeks in 1096	223
Jean-Claude CHEYNET .....	117
1. The Latins Arrive at the Gates of Constantinople.....	118
2. Negotiating to Build a Coalition .....	119
3. What Did Alexius and the Latins Agree to?.....	122
4. Treaty Application Made Difficult.....	123
5. The Alliance Eventually Fell Apart .....	124

A Good but Short-Lived Agreement .....	237
The Prudential Persistence of Powers after the Long Siege .....	237
Lessons from a Wholly Unsuccessful Venture .....	237

The Constantinople Conference (1876–1877): Negotiating with Russia
Isabelle DASQUE .....	127
1. Two-Stage Negotiations .....	128
2. Between a Cooperative Approach and a Competitive Approach: Lessons from a Failure.....	132
No Impunity for the Crimes in Darfur (2005): Negotiations within the Security Council
Jean-Marc DE LA SABLIERE.....	139
1. Carefully Prepared, High-Pressure Negotiations .....	141
2. Highly Diverse Factors Contributed to the Negotiations' Success.....	146
Negotiating the American Constitution (1787–1789): Coalitions, Process Rules, and Compromises
Carrie MENKEL-MEADOW .....	151
1. Framing a More Perfect Union: The Need for Negotiation .....	152
2. Competing Interests in Philadelphia.....	153
3. On the Importance of Process Rules: Ground Rules and Decision Rules .....	154
4. Negotiating Multi-Party and Multi-Issue Compromises .....	159
The Vienna Congress (1814–1815): A Security Council "Avant La Lettre"
Paul Willem MEERTS .....	165
1. From War to Words.....	166
2. The Big Five .....	167
3. Procedures and Processes.....	169
4. Those Not at the Table, are on the Menu .....	170
5. Lessons for Later .....	173
6. Continuity and Context Change .....	175
The 1856 Congress of Paris: Putting Victory to Good Use
Yves BRULEY .....	179
1. The European Balance of Powers after the "Peoples' Spring" .....	180
2. Lessons from a Multilateral Success .....	186

Woodrow Wilson in Versailles: A Transparent Diplomat's Frustrated Ambition	191
Aurélien COLSON .....	191
1. Wilson's Vision for a New Diplomacy.....	192
2. The New Balance: Secret Process, Public Results .....	197
3. Conclusion: Is Secrecy on Shaky Ground?.....	203
The Convention on the Future of Europe (2002–2003): A Model Process for a Multi-Institutional Meeting	207
Francesco MARCHI .....	207
1. 1954–2001: A Tradition of Intergovernmental Negotiations.....	208
2. Three Working Phases, from Personal Aspirations to Plenary Assembly .....	209
3. A Tightly Controlled Negotiating Procedure: Toward Exemplary Consensus?.....	211
4. Conclusion: The Process of Negotiation Shapes the Outcome .....	215
PART IV. BEYOND INTERESTS: EMOTIONS, BELIEFS AND VALUES	219
An Industrialization Deal in 1868 Japan: Glover the Scotsman in Nagasaki	219
William W. BABER .....	219
1. New Business Opportunities under the Meiji Government .....	220
2. Two Sides and Five Characters Seeking a Deal .....	221
3. A Quick Moving Negotiation.....	222
4. A Successful Deal and the Seeds of Failure .....	223
5. Tying Up Loose Ends .....	228
The 1659 Treaty of the Pyrenees: France and Spain Negotiate Honor	231
Emmanuel VIVET .....	231
1. Two Great Powers, Four Negotiation Topics .....	232
2. Cardinal Mazarin: Or How to Humor Someone While Dealing with Substantive Issues.....	233
3. How Does One Negotiate a Question of Honor? .....	236
4. A Good but Short-Lived Agreement.....	237

The Macartney Embassy to China (1793): Negotiating Face and Symbols
Guy Olivier FAURE .....	239
1. British Trade with China: The Canton System (1757–1842) .....	240
2. Preparing for the Mission .....	240
3. Meeting Emperor Qianlong .....	243
4. Meeting Confucianism .....	244
What Set Off the Korean Conflict of 1950? Interests, Reputation, and Emotions
Emmanuel PETIT .....	251
1. Unexpected Hostilities .....	252
2. The Failure of Rationality, or the Effects of Surprise and Fear .....	253
3. Conclusion: Emotions in International Relations .....	258
The Cuban Missile Crisis, 1962: Overt Confrontation, Covert Diplomacy and Downright Luck
R. Gerald HUGHES .....	261
1. A Nuclear Crisis in the Caribbean .....	262
2. Avoiding War Through Luck Rather than Crisis Management? .....	266
The Run Up to the Trump/Kim Singapore Summit: Playing Red and Playing Blue
Mark YOUNG .....	273
1. The Trump/Kim Negotiations: Seeking Cooperation in a Competitive Environment .....	274
2. The Red/Blue Game .....	275
3. Phase One: Blue Futility .....	277
4. Phase Two: Red Can Change the Game .....	279
5. Phase Three: Purple Uncertainty .....	282
6. Takeaways for this Negotiation .....	284
7. Conclusions: Negotiation Dynamics .....	286

PART V. MIDDLE EAST NEGOTIATIONS: INTERESTS OR EMOTIONS?

Negotiating in Syria in 1920: Gouraud and Faisal before the Battle of Damascus

Julie D'ANDURAIN .....	291
1. France in Syria, or the Faisal-Gouraud Negotiations .....	292
2. Poor Negotiating Conditions .....	294
3. Lessons: A Negotiation Derailed by the Rise of Extremism .....	297
4. Conclusion on a Negotiation Which Did Not Take Place .....	300

UN Security Council Resolution 242 of 1967: Ambiguity in International Agreements

Sami FALTAS .....	305
1. Israel Becomes a Regional Superpower .....	306
2. The Road to 242 .....	307
3. Sources and Examples of Ambiguity.....	310
4. How Did Ambiguity Affect the Impact of Resolution 242?.....	312
5. Benefits of Ambiguity in Negotiated Agreements.....	314

The Iran Nuclear Issue (2003–2005): Choosing to Negotiate

Stanislas DE LABOULAYE .....	317
1. 2003–2005: A Possible Agreement with Iran.....	318
2. Lessons Learned from a Failure: The Iran Negotiation's Three Inherent Weaknesses .....	320
3. Conclusion: A Negotiation Which was Not Ripe .....	325

The Iran Nuclear Negotiations (2005–2015): Tumbling in the Escalation Trap

Tobias W. LANGENEGGER .....	327
1. A History of Lost Trust (1941–1988) .....	327
2. Nuclear Ambitions.....	328
3. Increasing Pressure Through Coercive Measures .....	330
4. Diplomatic Efforts and Comprehensive Negotiations .....	331
5. The Mechanism of Escalation and Agreement .....	334

PART VI. MEDIATIONS

Raoul Nordling and the 1944 Liberation of Paris: A Mediator Saves Paris	239
Arnaud STIMEC .....	339
1. An Explosive Liberation .....	340
2. Warm-Up Exercises: Negotiating the Release of Prisoners .....	341
3. Saving Paris and its Inhabitants .....	343
4. The Mediator as Orchestrator: Wait Until the Time is Ripe and Take Advantage of Turning Points .....	345
5. Conclusion: The Right Person at the Right Moment .....	347
The Peace Process in Northern Ireland (1997–2007): From Hatred to Reason	349
Marc BERETTA .....	349
1. Secular Wars in Ireland .....	350
2. Ten Years to Bring an End to Secular Struggles .....	353
3. A Successful Peace Process: Determination as to the Objectives, Flexibility as to Means .....	355
4. Peace for Northern Ireland .....	358
Four Decades in the Southern Philippines (1971–2008): Can “Biased” Mediators be Helpful?	359
Ariel Macaspac HERNANDEZ .....	359
1. The Intractable Moro Conflict and Mediation Efforts .....	360
2. Neutrality, Process Neutrality and the Impartiality of States .....	365
Conclusion: Lessons for Modern Diplomacy	369
Emmanuel VIVET .....	369
Index .....	375