

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface.....7

The Collection of Civil Engineering up to the end of the 20th century and the origins of the historical collection.....9

How the Centre for Building Heritage in Plasy of the National Technical Museum Came to Be...11

The Plasy monastery and its agricultural premises.....14

Implementation of the Project of the Centre for Building Heritage in Plasy of the National Technical Museum.....22

The Collection of Civil Engineering in the 21st century – the present creation of the collection....26

A few sentences about the exhibitions’ spatial and graphic design.....28

Exhibition of Civil Engineering.....32

One who knows does not vandalize.....34

“Trust the one who has had experience”45

Materials.....46

Founding constructions.....58

Shell and Core of the building.....62

Heating.....76

Water.....94

Plasterwork and facings.....102

Stairs.....110

Connecting materials.....116

Floors and ceilings.....120

Electricity.....130

Windows and doors.....142

Roof trusses.....158

Roofing.....172

The Yard of Building Trades.....182

The Exhibition of the Construction History Research.....196

Vademecum des Zentrums für bauhistorisches Erbe Plasy – Resümee.....209