

Table of Content

I. Existence and Co-existence as a Philosophical Issue

Anna Hogenová: Existence and Co-existence as a Phenomenon	9
Dariusz Stępkowski: Rhizoming or Bildung – Academic Teaching at a Crossroad	19
Irina Yakovleva, Tatyana Kosenko: Institutionalization of the Individual in the Educational Interaction. Problems of Existence and Coexistence	35
Naděžda Pelcová: Education as Coexistence	45
Michael Hauser: Existence and Co-existence in Liberal Democracy after 1989: A Critical Czech Perspective	59
David Rybák: Fateful Transformation: The World as ‘Kosmos’ and the World as ‘Universum’	69

II. Existence and Co-existence from the Specialpedagogical Perspective

Annette Leonhardt: Expectations of Parents with Hearing Impaired Children at Inclusive Schools	83
Olga Maierová, Kateřina Hádková: Civil Competences of Pupils with Hearing Impairments With Emphasis on the Financial Literacy	95
Hádková Kateřina, Kotvová Miroslava: Visual Perception as an Important Determining Factor of Communication Development in Pupils with Hearing Impairment	101
Jadwiga Kuczyńska-Kwapisz: Special Rehabilitation and Education Needs for Learners with Visual Impairments in the Inclusive Education	109
Anna Kubičková: The Impact of Adverse Childhood Experiences on a Child’s Education	117

Monika Donevová, Vanda Hájková: Changes in the Views on Coexistence and the Search for a new Beginning of a Person's Life Path after a Stroke	129
Jana Horynová, Jiřina Klenková: Speech and Language Therapy Intervention for Adult Patients with Neurogenic Disorders at Post-Acute Care.....	135
Kinga Krawiecka: Social Inclusion of People with Intellectual Disabilities – Artistic Activity as an Inclusive Potential	145
Dušan Gáč: Forensic Detention from Perspective of Special Education	161