

Contents

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Acknowledgements .....  | v   |
| Foreword .....  | vi  |
| Executive summary .....   | vii |
| 1. 21st-century governance for health and well-being .....                                   | 1   |
| Background .....   | 1   |
| Focus of the study .....   | 1   |
| Contextual drivers .....   | 5   |
| 2. Governance .....  | 16  |
| Three key governance dynamics .....  | 16  |
| The changing nature of policy-making .....   | 27  |
| 3. Governance for health and well-being .....  | 35  |
| History of horizontal governance for health in three waves .....                             | 35  |
| 4. Good governance for health and well-being .....   | 41  |
| What is good governance? .....   | 41  |
| Role of guiding value systems .....  | 42  |
| The relationship between values and evidence .....   | 47  |
| 5. Smart governance for health and well-being .....  | 50  |
| Introduction .....   | 51  |
| Five types of smart governance for health and well-being .....                               | 53  |
| 6. New governance for health .....   | 81  |
| New role for the health sector .....   | 82  |
| Political engagement and leadership .....  | 84  |
| Conclusions and recommendations on the new Europeanpolicy for health – Health 2020 ..... | 85  |
| Glossary .....   | 90  |
| References .....   | 94  |
| Key literature that has informed this study .....  | 106 |