Introduction xvii

PART I: INTRODUCTION TO SOCIAL NETWORK ANALYSIS 1

1 Social Networks 3
- 1.1 The Unique Aspects of Social Network Analysis 6
- 1.2 A Brief Historical Background 8
- 1.3 A Brief Introduction to Network Terms 10
- 1.4 Basic Assumptions 13
- 1.5 Social Networks in Human Society 16
- 1.6 Summary: Lessons Learned 17
- 1.7 Questions 18
- 1.8 Answers 19
- 1.9 Further Reading 19

2 Strategic Options for Disrupting Dark Networks 23
- 2.1 Crafting Strategies with Social Network Analysis 24
- 2.2 Strategic Options for Disrupting Dark Networks 25
- 2.3 Summary: Lessons Learned 31
- 2.4 Questions 32
- 2.5 Answers 33
- 2.6 Further Reading 33

3 Collecting, Coding, and Manipulating Social Network Data 35
- 3.1 A Process for Designing and Collecting Network Data 36

3.2 Analytic Questions 36
3.3 Social Network Data 40
3.4 Boundary Work 49
3.5 Coding Relational and Attribute Data: Codebooks and Ontologies 52
3.6 Collecting Social Network Data 55
3.7 Recording Social Network Data 57
3.8 Combining, Aggregating, and Parsing Networks 66
3.9 Simplifying Networks 73
3.10 Summary: Lessons Learned 76
3.11 Questions 77
3.12 Answers 78
3.13 Further Reading 78

PART II: EXPLORATORY SOCIAL NETWORK ANALYSIS 83

4 Topographical Features of Dark Networks 85
4.1 Basic Topographical Metrics 89
4.2 Network Centralization 91
4.3 Network Interconnectedness 96
4.4 Summary: Lessons Learned 104
4.5 Questions 105
4.6 Answers 106
4.7 Further Reading 107

5 Detecting Subgroups in Networks 109
5.1 Components 113
5.2 Cliques 116
5.3 Cores 119
5.4 Factions 123
5.5 Community Detection 130
5.6 Summary: Lessons Learned 133
5.7 Questions 136
5.8 Answers 137
5.9 Further Reading 138

6 Identifying Central Actors in Networks 141
6.1 Work-plan for Centrality Calculations 142
6.2 Centrality and Power 143
6.3 Centrality and Prestige 154
6.4 The Application of Centrality Measures to Understand Dark Networks 158
6.5 Summary: Lessons Learned 163

6.6 Questions 164
6.7 Answers 166
6.8 Further Reading 167

7 Brokerage within Networks 169
7.1 Analyzing Brokerage in Dark Networks 170
7.2 Cutpoints, Bi-components, and Bridges 171
7.3 Key Players (Cutsets, Critical Sets) 175
7.4 Bridges and Network Flow 179
7.5 Structural Holes 181
7.6 Affiliations and Brokerage 185
7.7 Summary: Lessons Learned 187
7.8 Questions 189
7.9 Answers 191
7.10 Further Reading 192

8 Positional Approaches to Analyzing Networks 195
8.1 Establishing Roles through Structural Equivalence 196
8.2 Structural Equivalence 197
8.3 Automorphic Equivalence 211
8.4 Regular Equivalence 214
8.5 Summary: Lessons Learned 216
8.6 Questions 218
8.7 Answers 219
8.8 Further Reading 219

PART III: CONFIRMATORY SOCIAL NETWORK ANALYSIS 221

9 Digging Deeper and Testing Hypotheses 223
9.1 Developing and Testing Working Hypotheses 224
9.2 Quadratic Assignment Procedure (QAP) 230
9.3 Conditional Uniform Graphs (CUGs) 235
9.4 A Note on Interpretation: Causality in Networks 239
9.5 Summary: Lessons Learned 240
9.6 Questions 241
9.7 Answers 242
9.8 Further Reading 242

10 More Hypothesis Testing: Using Exponential Random Graph Models (ERGMs) to Explain Tie Formation 245
10.1 Exponential Random Graph Models 247
10.2 How ERGMs Work (A Nontechnical Overview) 249
10.3 How ERGMs Work (A Technical Overview) 251

10.4 Modeling, Evaluating, and Interpreting an EGRM: A Step-by-Step Example 253
10.5 Summary: Lessons Learned 262
10.6 Questions 263
10.7 Answers 264
10.8 Further Reading 264

11 Longitudinal Analyses of Dark Networks 267
11.1 Stochastic Actor-Oriented Models 269
11.2 A Study in Radicalization: Sixteenth-century Anabaptists and the Münster Rebellion 271
11.3 Social Networks and Religious Radicalization 274
11.4 A Longitudinal Analysis of the Anabaptist Leadership Network 278
11.5 Summary: Lessons Learned 287
11.6 Questions 288
11.7 Answers 289
11.8 Further Reading 289

PART IV: CONCLUSION 291

12 Lessons Learned 293

Appendix 1: Data Description and Codebook 301
A1.1 Afghan Tribal Network 301
A1.2 Anabaptist Leadership Network 303
A1.3 FARC TFMC (Teofilo Ferero Mobile Column) Network 304
A1.4 Koschade Bali I Bombing Network 307
A1.5 Noordin Top Terrorist Network 308

Appendix 2: Glossary of Terms 323

Appendix 3: Analytic Software 333
