

Contents

Preface ix

Acknowledgments xi

List of Abbreviations xiii

1. Introduction	1
2. Humoral Medicine: The Legacy of Hippocrates and Galen	9
3. Overview of the Three Plague Pandemics: 541 to ca. 1950	28
4. Plague as a Disease	40
5. Responses to Plague	58
6. Smallpox before Edward Jenner	83
7. The Historical Impact of Smallpox	97
8. War and Disease: Napoleon, Yellow Fever, and the Haitian Revolution	111
9. War and Disease: Napoleon, Dysentery, and Typhus in Russia, 1812	140
10. The Paris School of Medicine	168
11. The Sanitary Movement	184
12. The Germ Theory of Disease	204
13. Cholera	233
14. Tuberculosis in the Romantic Era of Consumption	269
15. Tuberculosis in the Unromantic Era of Contagion	292

16. The Third Plague Pandemic: Hong Kong and Bombay	332
17. Malaria and Sardinia: Uses and Abuses of History	357
18. Polio and the Problem of Eradication	385
19. HIV/AIDS: An Introduction and the Case of South Africa	408
20. HIV/AIDS: The Experience of the United States	429
21. Emerging and Reemerging Diseases	448
22. Dress Rehearsals for the Twenty-First Century: SARS and Ebola	466

Notes 507

Selected Bibliography 523

Index 551