

Contents

- 8. Foreword
- 10. Preface
- 12. Acknowledgements
- 13. Meet Sean & thanks
- 17. Introduction
- 18. Part 1: Master techniques for preparation
- 21. #1. Success. By design, during preparation
- 23. #2. Write and test clear build questions
- 25. #3. Build questions - Evoke, emote or describe?
- 27. #4. Always prepare reflections in advance
- 29. #5. Align your components! Test your design
- 31. #6. Planning with time constraints
- 33. #7. Group sizes & meta models
- 35. Part 2: Master techniques for the skills build
- 37. #8. Technical skills build - focus on connections
- 39. #9. Teach technical skills via hacks
- 41. #10. Play single brick metaphor
- 43. #11. Norm the group to a higher level of listening
- 45. #12. Tap-&-Tell: Use a pointer stick
- 47. #13. Maintain share and reflect stage discipline
- 48. Part 3: Master techniques for setting the challenge
- 49. #14. Use the build questions you prepared
- 49. #15. Ask if anyone has questions about the task

- 50. Part 4: Master techniques for facilitating the build
- 51. #16. Frame the build with the reflection questions
- 53. #17. Play music
- 55. #18. Managing build time
- 56. Part 5: Master techniques for facilitating the individual model share
- 59. #19. Who's first? Curiosity from the very start!
- 61. #20. Repeat the build question
- 63. #21. Facilitate questions about the model
- 65. #22. Facilitate the recap, don't DO the recap
- 67. #23. Facilitating (and asking) clean questions
- 68. Part 6: Master techniques for facilitating shared model building
- 73. #24. Facilitator presence
- 75. #25. Setting up a shared model build
- 77. #26. Increase energy and reach for shared model building
- 79. #27. Recap for shared understanding
- 81. #28. Facilitate clear and simple meaning
- 83. #29. Identifying the most important ideas
- 85. #30. Getting hands on bricks - So show me!
- 87. #31. The unexpected benefits of LEGO Cam
- 89. #32. Sharing questions, concerns, reservations
- 91. #33. Stay on topic
- 93. #34. Getting to an agreed shared model
- 95. #35. Post agreement refinement

- 95. #36. No agreement is better than fake agreement
- 97. #37. Shared models as inputs for further work
- 98. Part 7: Other LEGO® Serious Play® facilitation techniques
- 99. #38. Get the name right!
- 101. #39. No-video switching hack
- 103. #40. Body language and group energy
- 103. #41. Clearing up afterwards
- 105. #42. Recording outputs
- 107. #43. Reflective practice
- 109. #44. Be authentically you
- 110. Part 8: Graduate stories and tips
- 122. Part 9: Now what? Learn more!
- 125. Build Level 3: System models
- 128. We need to talk about certification
- 129. Gain your competency based certification
- 130. Further reading
- 131. Contact details
- 134. Part 10: Appendices
- 136. #A1. Outcomes not meetings
- 150. #A2. Sample workshop plan
- 160. #A3. A one hour workshop plan
- 164. #A4. Skills build facilitation notes
- 168. #A5. LEGO® Serious Play® Etiquette
- 170. #A6. LEGO® Serious Play® Trademark Guidelines