

Contents

Acknowledgement	IX
Preface	X
Foreword by Meredith McKittrick	XII
1 The Festive 'Moment' of Namibia	1
Introduction	1
2 The 'Performance' of Culture	14
On 'Doing' and 'Performing' 'Culture' at State Sponsored Culture Festivals	14
Anthropology and Performance	15
Performance Theory in the Social Science Sphere	17
Theory of Performance: A Critical Analysis	19
Postcolonial Nationalism: One Namibia One Nation	24
Festival Making in Postcolonial Africa	28
Culture and Making the Nation	29
Festival with New Social Meaning and Function	32
3 Home Anthropology and Politics of Ekoró	38
"Whose Child are You?" The Dynamics and Politics of ekoro/likoro in Doing
Ethnography at Home	38
Connectedness of Ekoró and its Workings in the Research Field	40
Analysis of Ekoró and its Working in the Research Field	45
Assumed and Imposed Fieldwork Self	49
4 Kavango the 'Domicile' in Perspective	53
Kavango: Whose Land is It?	53
Kavango the Place or People?	57
Kavango as Told in Legends	62
The Royal Narrative	64

Early German Colonial and Missionary Encounters	68
Kavango the Native Reserve	74
Volkekunde Anthropology and Kavango	75
Kavango After the Implementation of the Odendaal Plan	79
Kavango in Contemporary Discourse: A Historical Sanitization Project	83
5 Sangfees, the Antecedent of the Postcolonial Annual National Culture Festival	87
The Making of the Colonial Festival: 'sangfees'	87
The Department of Education Administration for Kavango	89
Division of Youth and Culture Affairs	94
Sangfees at Ekongoro	97
Ezuva for the 'Youth'	99
Postcolonial Annual Culture Festivals	102
6 Kavango Cultural Identity in Postcolonial Namibia	111
Reclaiming Colonial Ethnicity in a Postcolonial Context	111
On the Search for 'Tradition' and 'Culture' in Namibia	113
Kavango Museum	115
Maria Mwengere Culture Centre: 'The Culture Booklet: An Instrument of Objectification'	121
"Culture Booklet": A Resource of Advocacy	127
7 Namibian Identity Through Dance	137
"Making the Nation": The Role of Local People in the Festival	137
A Note on 'Kavango' Traditional Dances	140
Rehearsal Performances	145
At Mayana Primary School	145
At Swapo Regional Office	148
Festival Making: Exploring Local Participation and Influences in the Discourse of Nation-Building	150
Mpungu Circuit and Kavango Regional Festivals	156
"Daya Ngomal", a Drumming Performance that Had Us Electrified: An Analysis of Front Stage Interactions at the Festival	164

8 Deconstructing Postcolonial Ethnic Diversity	169
Annual National Culture Festival: Discourses of Difference and Belonging in Postcolonial Namibia	169
The Annual National Culture Festival	170
The March Through Town	171
Inside the Stadium	172
‘Performances’ of Culture	174
Analysis of the Festival Representations in Kavango	178
Reflections on Kavango Identity	182
9 The Postcolonial Nation as Curated by the State Through Dance	185
Conclusion	185
Festivals and ‘Nation Building’	190
List of Abbreviations	197
Bibliography	198