Contents

Foreword x
MICHAEL O'FLAHERTY
List of editors and contributors xii

Introduction 1
ROSEMARY BYRNE AND HAN ENTZINGER

PART I
FRA and its policy environment 11

1 The genesis of the EU Fundamental Rights Agency: why a think tank rather than a monitoring body 13
OLIVIER DE SCHUTTER

2 A new agency, and so what? Giving flesh and blood to FRA's founding Regulation 28
MORTEN KJÆRUM

3 Hand in hand for a better protection of human rights in Europe: the relationship between the Council of Europe and FRA 43
TATIANA TERMACIC

4 FRA's policy impact and future posture: lessons from the perspective of the European Commission 57
SALLA SAASTAMOINEN

5 Human rights communicators: FRA's evolving voice on research, rights and policy 69
ROSEMARY BYRNE

6 Exploring the political role of FRA: mandate, resources and opportunities 82
JAN WOUTERS AND MICHAL OVÁDEK

PART II
Researching applied rights 103

7 FRA as a meeting place of law and social sciences 105
HAN ENTZINGER AND GERARD QUINN

8 A reflection on the quality of FRA's research and methodology 117
ANGELA ME

9 Equality and inclusion: designing research to reconcile rights, ideas and policy practices at FRA 131
HAN ENTZINGER

10 FRA's efforts to combat hatred, xenophobia and racism 143
FRANÇOISE TULKENS

11 Promoting equality: FRA's work on Roma 158
JOSÉ MANUEL FRESNO AND JOHANNA NIEMI

12 Violence against women: policy impact and FRA's evidence-based research 172
ROMAN WIERUSZEWSKI AND KATARZYNA SĘKOWSKA-KOZŁOWSKA

13 Borders and migration control: FRA's research at protection black spots 185
JENS VEDSTED-HANSEN

14 Embedded EU research on refugee protection: FRA's work on asylum and irregular migration 197
ROSEMARY BYRNE

PART III
Overcoming constraints 207

15 FRA's response to the current human rights challenges 209
MANFRED NOWAK AND ANNA MÜLLER-FUNK

16 Upholding the rule of law in the EU: what role for FRA? 219
LAURENT PECH AND JOELLE GROGAN

17 Concluding reflections on human rights law and evidence-based policy 237
ROSEMARY BYRNE AND HAN ENTZINGER

Index 251