

Contents

"Goffman" by Charles Lemert	ix
Goffman's Social Theory by Ann Branaman	xliv
Part I The Production of Self	1
1 Self Claims On Cooling the Mark Out: Some Aspects of Adaptation to Failure	3
2 Self-Presentation The Presentation of Self in Everyday Life	21
3 The Self as Ritual Object The Nature of Deference and Demeanor	27
4 The Self and Social Roles Role Distance	35
Part II The Confined Self	43
5 Status, Territory, and the Self The Territories of the Self	45
6 The Mortified Self The Characteristics of Total Institutions The Moral Career of the Mental Patient	55 63
7 The Stigmatized Self Stigma: Notes on the Management of Spoiled Identity	73
8 The Recalcitrant Self The Underlife of a Public Institution	81

Part III	The Nature of Social Life	93
9	Social Life as Drama The Presentation of Self in Everyday Life	95
10	Social Life as Ritual On Face-work: An Analysis of Ritual Elements in Social Interaction The Structure and Function of Situational Proprieties Supportive Interchanges Remedial Interchanges	109 111 114 119
11	Social Life as Game Fun In Games Where the Action Is Strategic Interaction	129 139 140
Part IV	Frames and the Organization of Experience	147
12	Frame Analysis Frame Analysis: An Essay on the Organization of Experience	149
13	Frame Analysis of Talk Felicity's Condition Response Cries	167 192
14	Frame Analysis of Gender The Arrangement Between the Sexes Gender Display	201 208
15	Social Interaction and Social Structure The Neglected Situation The Interaction Order	229 233
	Bibliography: Erving Goffman's Writings	263
	Bibliography: Secondary Literature	265
	Acknowledgements	273
	Index	275