

Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| Introduction: life between university and parliament | vii |
| PART I | |
| Law, persons, rights | 1 |
| Prologue: are women and animals persons? | 3 |
| 1 A brief history of the person | 11 |
| 2 The story of dignitas | 22 |
| 3 What is the legal person? | 32 |
| 4 Subject, individual, human | 50 |
| 5 Legality after virtue: from (objective) right to (subjective) rights | 68 |
| PART II | |
| The paradoxes of rights | 87 |
| 6 The paradoxes of human rights | 89 |
| 7 Rights, identity, desire | 106 |
| 8 Marx, the radical left and rights | 116 |
| 9 The poverty of (rights) jurisprudence | 132 |
| PART III | |
| The right to resistance | 151 |
| 10 Philosophy and resistance | 153 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| 11 The 'right to the event': the legality and morality of revolution and resistance | 168 |
| 12 Prolegomena towards a theory of righting | 186 |
| Epilogue: critical legal studies goes Greek | 195 |
| Bibliography | 218 |
| Index | 228 |