

Content

---

|                                                                                                                                     |           |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Introduction .....                                                                                                           | 5  |
| Rights of pregnant women as specifiedin current Slovak legislation                                                      |           |
| Ivan Podhorec .....                                                                                                          | 7  |
| Legal regulations and economic theory regarding tuition feesfor university studies in the Slovak Republic               |           |
| Rastislav Funta, Peter Plavčan.....                                                                                          | 15 |
| The contribution of Ján Szegedi, a professorat Trnava University, to Hungarian law                                      |           |
| Erika Juríková .....                                                                                                         | 23 |
| Ecclesiastical law and legal philosophyin Juraj Sigismund Lakić's work                                                  |           |
| Katarína Karabová .....                                                                                                      | 29 |
| Notes on linguistic aspect of justinian digest—challenges and obstacles of legal text translation                       |           |
| Nicol Sipekiová .....                                                                                                        | 35 |
| Stages of mediation formation in foreign countries                                                                           |           |
| Stanislav Mráz, Liudmila Surma .....                                                                                         | 41 |
| Ethical and legal aspects of nature conservationin classical antiquity                                                  |           |
| Lubor Kysučan.....                                                                                                           | 49 |
| Probes into minutes from the manorial courtof Červený Kameň castle estate in the 18th century                |           |
| Eva Benková.....                                                                                                             | 59 |
| Comparative tradition in German colonial law.A case of legal measures against indian populationin the South Africa |           |
| Jarmila Brezinová .....                                                                                                      | 67 |

Historical excursion of the arrival of Roma to Slovakia

Ľudovít Spuchlák .....77

To the roots of the Visegrad Group

Kristína Králiková .....85

A few remarks on personality of Miloslav Okál

Tomáš Klokner .....99

Correspondence fragments of the Králik family and the family of Gerhát with friends family in the middle of 20th century

Jozef Králik ..... 107