

The Nature of Category Formation Contents

THE NATURE OF CATEGORY FORMATION	1
A. Essential-intuitional method	2
B. Types of definition	5
C. Functional-definitional method	16
THE CATEGORY OF RELIGION	17
A. A functional definition of religion	18
B. Implications of this functional definition	19
C. Possible objections to this definition	22
THE CATEGORY OF HISTORY	28
A. The meaning of 'history'	32
B. Is religio-historical knowledge possible?	37
THE CATEGORY OF UNDERSTANDING	54
A. Functional understanding: Bronislaw Malinowski	60
B. Phenomenological understanding: Mircea Eliade	74
C. Personal understanding: Wilfred Cantwell Smith	91
D. Normative understanding: Hendrik Kraemer, Hans Küng und Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan	106
SOME INADEQUATE CATEGORIES	126
A. Religion, an adequate primary category	126
B. 'The religions': Hinduism and Buddhism	134
C. Transhistorical religious structures	152
NOTES AND REFERENCES	155
INDEX	171