

Contents

Preface ix

Acknowledgments xiii

PART ONE The Golden Age

1

- 1 Building the Road to Kathmandu: Steps in the West's Journey to the East 3
- 2 Making Nepal a Destination: The Cultural Politics of Early Tourism 26
- 3 Mountains, Monsters, and Monks: Nepal in the 1950s Western Popular Imagination 45
- 4 The Key to an Oriental World: Boris Lissanevitch, Kathmandu's Royal Hotel, and the "Golden Age" of Tourism in Nepal 64
- 5 Jung Bahadur Coapsingha: John Coapman, Hunting, and the Origins of Adventure Tourism in Nepal 94

PART TWO Hippie Nepal

127

- 6 The Great Rucksack Revolution: Western Youth on the Road to Kathmandu 129
- 7 "Kathmandu or Bust": Countercultural Longing and the Rise of Freak Street 164
- 8 "Something Big and Glorious and Magnificently Insane": Hippie Kathmandu 200
- 9 Hippie Ko Pala (The Age of Hippies) 235
- 10 Nepal's Discovery of Tourism and the End of the Hippie Era 271

PART THREE Adventure Tourism

295

- 11 Adventure Nepal: Trekking, Thamel, and the New Tourism 297
- 12 Imbibing Eastern Wisdom: Nepal as Dharma Destination 323

References 367

Index 383