
CONTENTS

| | |
|---|-----|
| Foreword | 7 |
| I. Introduction | 9 |
| 1. Specification of the problem | 9 |
| 1.1 Our objectives | 14 |
| 1.2 Methodology | 14 |
| 1.3 A description of the group under examination | 16 |
| II. Life prior to becoming homeless | 19 |
| 1. Homeless people rate their childhood and family of origin | 19 |
| 1.1 Current relationships between our respondents and their parents | 27 |
| 2. Sibling relationships | 31 |
| 3. Partnerships prior to becoming homeless | 34 |
| 4. Parenthood | 43 |
| 5. Employment and accommodation prior to becoming homeless | 51 |
| 5.1 Means of livelihood prior to becoming homeless | 53 |
| III. Life on the street | 63 |
| 1. Causes of homelessness | 63 |
| 2. First days on the street | 75 |
| 3. Life on the street | 80 |
| 3.1 A typical day | 83 |
| 3.2 How our respondents feel about their lives on the street | 88 |
| 4. Relationships between homeless people | 98 |
| 4.1 Sexual partnerships between homeless people | 109 |
| 5. Where older homeless people live | 120 |
| 5.1 Sleeping rough | 122 |
| 5.2 Sleeping in non-residential premises and squats | 127 |
| 5.3 Sleeping at the apartment of a friend or relative | 131 |
| 5.4 Sleeping in reception centres | 131 |
| 5.5 Sleeping in shelters | 135 |
| 6. How our respondents support themselves | 141 |
| 6.1 Charities | 142 |
| 6.2 Social benefits | 147 |
| 6.3 Casual (cash-in-hand) work | 152 |
| 6.4 Begging and panhandling | 158 |

| | |
|--|---------|
| 6.5 Scavenging and collecting (redeeming recyclables) | 164 |
| 6.6 Theft | 168 |
| 6.7 Prostitution | 171 |
| 7. Alcohol consumption on the street | 172 |
| 8. Drug consumption on the street | 185 |
| 9. Psychological problems | 194 |
| 10. Criminal activity | 201 |
| 10.1 What our respondents think about life in prison | 210 |
| 11. What our respondents think about themselves and their transformation | 213 |
| 12. Subjective reasons for long-term homelessness | 220 |
| 13. Debt as an important barrier to any return to mainstream society | 226 |
| IV. Ideas of the future | 235 |
| 1. How our older respondents view their future prospects | 235 |
| 2. The message our respondents would like to send to ordinary people | 241 |
| V. Conclusion | 245 |
| Appendix | 251 |
| VI. The follow-up stories of young homeless people | 253 |
| 1. Introduction | 253 |
| 2. More detailed analysis of changes in the lives of our young respondents | 254 |
| 3. The current lifestyle of our young respondents | 256 |
| 4. Factors that influenced the lives of young people | 258 |
| 4.1 A description of the people who remained homeless | 266 |
| 4.2 A description of the people who returned to society | 269 |
| 5. The interpersonal relationships of our young respondents | 271 |
| 5.1 Relationships with parents and siblings | 272 |
| 5.2 Sexual partnerships | 278 |
| 5.3 Relationships with children | 283 |
| VII. Causes, contexts and prospects of homelessness | 289 |
| 1. Social services for homeless people in the Czech Republic | 293 |
| 1.1 State assistance | 293 |
| 1.2 Outreach programmes | 295 |
| 1.3 Low-threshold drop-in centres | 296 |
| 1.4 Residential services | 297 |
| Bibliography | 301 |