Contents

page vii

Preface and Acknowledgments

1	Durkheim's Life and the Four Major Books	1
	Situating Durkheim – early life and training – The Division of Labor – The Rules of Sociological Method – Suicide – the middle career phase – L'Année sociologique – The Elementary Forms of Religious Life – death.
2	Durkheim's Other Works and the Contributions of His Students	57
	The variety of outputs – individualism – socialism – ethics – the state – sex/gender/family/marriage – pragmatism – education – the body – punishment – classification – Mauss – Hertz – Hubert – other students in the Année team.
3	Durkheimian Thought, 1917–1950	94
	France – the fate of Durkheim's team – Mauss: the gift and the body – Halbwachs and collective memory – Bataille and the Collège de sociologie – Britain and structural functionalist anthropology – Radcliffe-Brown – Evans-Pritchard – the United States – Parsons – Merton.
4	Through the Cultural Turn, 1950–1985	136
	Parsons and systems theory – the fall of Parsons – Germany – Lévi-Strauss – British anthropology – Mary Douglas – Durkheimian empirical sociology in the United States.

CONTENTS

5 Into the Twenty-First Century: Durkheim Revived, 1985–2020 Durkheim neglected – the rise of cultural sociology in the United States – Jeffrey Alexander and the Strong Program – Randall Collins and interaction ritual – other Durkheimian work in the United States – the Durkheimian Studies/Études Durkheimiennes group – Germany – adaptations of Mary Douglas on grid/group – evolutionary psychology – the return of normative Durkheimian theory. References
		Index	234