

CONTENTS

Contributors	vii
List of Illustrations	ix
Introduction	1
Laurence Cole and Daniel L. Unowsky
1. Patriotic and National Myths: National Consciousness and Elementary School Education in Imperial Austria	11
Ernst Bruckmüller
2. Military Veterans and Popular Patriotism in Imperial Austria, 1870–1914	36
Laurence Cole
3. Emperor Joseph II in the Austrian Imagination up to 1914	62
Nancy M. Wingfield
4. The Flyspecks on Palivec's Portrait: Francis Joseph, the Symbols of Monarchy, and Czech Popular Loyalty	86
Hugh LeCaine Agnew
5. Celebrating Two Emperors and a Revolution: The Public Contest to Represent the Polish and Ruthenian Nations in 1880	113
Daniel L. Unowsky
6. Empress Elisabeth as Hungarian Queen: The Uses of Celebrity Monarchism	138
Alice Freifeld

7. State Ritual and Ritual Parody: Croatian Student Protest and the Limits of Loyalty at the End of the Nineteenth Century Sarah Kent	162
8. Collective Identifications and Austro-Hungarian Jews (1914–1918): The Contradictions and Travails of Avigdor Hameiri Alon Rachamimov	178
9. Representing Constitutional Monarchy in Late Nineteenth and Early Twentieth-century Britain, Germany, and Austria Christiane Wolf	199
Afterword R.J.W. Evans	223
Select Bibliography	233
Index	236