

Contents

Citation Information	vii
Notes on Contributors	xi
Introduction: Service user and carer involvement in social work education – where are we now? – Part 1	1
Hugh McLaughlin, June Sadd, Brendan McKeever and Joseph Duffy
Introduction: Service user and carer involvement in social work education – where are we now? – Part 2	4
Joseph Duffy, Brendan McKeever, Hugh McLaughlin, June Sadd
1 Outcomes focused user involvement in social work education: applying knowledge to practice	7
Susan Levy, Rowan Aiton, Jade Doig, John P. L. Dow, Shireen Brown, Liz Hunter and Ryan McNeil
2 Lessons from a comparative study of user involvement	19
Carolyn Gutman and Shulamit Ramon
3 Belonging to the library: humanising the space for social work education	33
Robin Sen, Nora McClelland and Beverley Jowett
4 A journey of embedding mental health lived experience in social work education	46
Kate P. Dorozenko, Sophie Ridley, Robyn Martin and Lyn Mahboub
5 Involving People with Profound and Multiple Learning Disabilities in Social Work Education: Building Inclusive Practice	59
Nicki Ward, Christian Raphael, Matthew Clark and Vicki Raphael
6 The benefits of prisoner participation in interdisciplinary learning	74
Ben Raikes and Rachel Balen

CONTENTS

7	Gaining by giving? Peer research into service user and carer perceptions of inclusivity in Higher Education Joy M. Rooney, Peter F. Unwin and Nina Osborne	86
8	Being a service user and a social work academic: balancing expert identities Joanna Fox	101
9	Role-played interviews with service users in preparation for social work practice: exploring students' and service users' experience of co-produced workshops Sara Hitchin	111
10	Learning from service users' involvement: a research about changing stigmatizing attitudes in social work students Elena Cabiati and Maria Luisa Raineri	123
11	The Meaningful Involvement of Service Users in Social Work Education: Examples from Belgium and The Netherlands Kristel Driessens, Hugh McLaughlin and Lia van Doorn	138
12	Mend the gap – strategies for user involvement in social work education Ole Petter Askheim, Peter Beresford and Cecilia Heule	151
13	Social work undergraduates and service users as co-learners and researchers Merav Moshe Grodofsky and Carolyn Gutman	164
14	A critical examination of the knowledge contribution service user and carer involvement brings to social work education Kieron Hatton	177
15	Expert by experience research as grounding for social work education Petra Videmšek	195
16	From service-user to social work examiner: not a bridge too far Hilda Loughran and Gary Broderick	211
17	What difference does it make? Findings of an impact study of service user and carer involvement on social work students' subsequent practice Mel Hughes	226
18	Life at the other end: participatory film-making, power and the 'common third' Yohai Hakak and Kevin Holmes	240
	Index	247