

TABLE OF CONTENTS

FOREWORD, by The Right Hon. The Lord Mustill	v
PREFACE	vii
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	viii
CHAPTER 1. ARBITRATION AND ALTERNATIVE DISPUTES RESOLUTION.....	1
1.1 Arbitration	1
1.2 Ad hoc v. administered arbitration	4
1.3 From hostility to favour.....	5
1.4 Conciliation and mediation	7
1.5 Alternative dispute resolution	12
1.6 Mini trials.....	14
1.7 Technical expertise, valuation, Schiedsgutachten , Bindend Advies , quality arbitration	17
1.8 Technical expertise v. arbitration	18
1.9 Med/arb	19
1.10 Medialoa	20
1.11 Dispute review board (or advisors)	20
1.12 Partnering.....	21
1.13 Sequence of ADR mechanisms	21
1.14 Court annexed arbitration	22
1.15 Adaptation of contracts	24
1.16 Compulsory (or statutory) arbitration.....	25
CHAPTER 2. NATIONALITY OF ARBITRATION.....	29
2.1 The categories of national and foreign arbitration	29
2.2 Criteria for identifying nationality	31
2.2.1 The geographical criterion.....	31
2.2.2 The procedural criterion.....	32
2.2.3 The difference between procedural nationality and the place taken into account for recognition of the award	38
2.3 The category of international arbitration.....	39
2.3.1 The subjective criterion	40
2.3.2 Reference to international commerce.....	41
2.3.3 The procedural criterion.....	42
2.4 Conclusions	46

CHAPTER 3. THE SOURCES OF INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION LAW	47
3.1 International conventions	47
(a) Multilateral conventions	47
(b) Bilateral conventions	55
3.2 The intention of the parties	56
3.3 Rules of arbitral institutions	56
3.4 Arbitrators' alternative choice	59
3.5 National legal systems	59
3.6 Precedents	77
(a) Arbitral precedents	78
(b) Court precedents	80
 CHAPTER 4. ARBITRATION UNDER THE WASHINGTON CONVENTION	81
4.1 Origin of the Convention	81
4.2 Field of application	82
4.3 Identifying the law applicable to investment contracts	84
4.4 Arbitral proceedings	86
4.5 The award and its effects	90
4.6 ICSID second instance arbitration – MIGA	98
4.7 M.I.G.A.	104
 CHAPTER 5. ARBITRATION UNDER THE ALGIERS DECLARATIONS	107
5.1 Origin of the declarations – contents	107
5.2 Form of the declarations	109
5.3 The two roles of the tribunal	110
5.4 Jurisdiction of the tribunal	111
5.5 Applicable substantive and procedural laws	112
5.6 Arbitral or non-arbitral nature of the tribunal	126
 CHAPTER 6. INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION LAW	133
6.1 Analysis as to the existence of a law of international arbitration	133
6.2 International commercial arbitration	134
6.2.1 A fragmentary body	135
6.2.2 Multilateral conventions	135
6.2.3 Bilateral conventions	137
6.2.4 Other international conventions dealing incidentally with arbitration	137
6.2.5 International arbitration rules	139

6.2.6 Consolidated principles of international commercial arbitration ...	140
6.3 Public international arbitration law	142
6.4 Conclusions	143
CHAPTER 7. INTERNATIONAL PUBLIC LAW ARBITRATION	145
7.1. Arbitration and international public law disputes	145
7.2. Historical development of international public law arbitration	147
7.3. The Permanent Court of Arbitration.....	149
7.4. The International Court of Justice	150
7.5. Settlement of international trade disputes (GATT and World Trade Organisation)	155
7.6. Main features of international public law arbitration.....	156
7.7. Arbitration between states and individuals.....	158
7.8. Settlement of other public international disputes.....	160
CHAPTER 8. ARBITRATION OF COMMERCIAL DISPUTES BETWEEN A STATE AND A PRIVATE PARTY	163
8.1 International arbitral tribunals alleged to be instruments of a Western policy detrimental to developing countries	163
8.2 The task of the Arbitral tribunal to apply the contract and law.....	166
8.3 Temptations to be resisted	168
CHAPTER 9. DISPUTES CAPABLE OF ARBITRATION AND ARBITRAL REMEDIES	171
9.1 Disputes capable of settlement by arbitration	171
9.2 Connection between disputes capable of settlement by arbitration and disputes which are not capable of settlement by arbitration.....	183
9.3 Arbitral remedies	185
9.4 Punitive damages	186
9.5 Pre- and post- award interest.....	187
9.6 Authority to amend or terminate a legal relationship	189
9.7 Treble damages.....	192
CHAPTER 10. THE ARBITRATION AGREEMENT	195
10.1 The arbitration agreement and the contract with the arbitrators.....	195
10.2 Capacity of the parties.....	197
→ 10.3 Consent and form.....	202
10.4 Contents	214
→ 10.5 Duty to cooperate.....	224
10.6 Autonomy	225

→ 10.7 Applicable law	231
→ 10.8 Validity of the arbitration agreement.....	241
10.9 Time limit for entering into an arbitration agreement.....	248
10.10 Positive and negative effects	250
10.11 Conditions precedent	254
10.12 Waiver	256
10.13 Expiry	258
10.14 Remedies for invalidity	264
10.15 Consummation of the right to arbitration.....	265
10.16 Loss of effects if a public body takes over the position of a contracting party	267
CHAPTER 11. THE PARTIES TO ARBITRATION – CAPACITY TO SUBMIT TO ARBITRATION.....	269
11.1 Private parties, public administrations and government enterprises.....	269
11.2 Disputes as to the existence of an arbitration agreement.....	272
11.3 Sovereign immunity.....	276
11.4 Subjective and objective changes in the original contract.....	281
11.5 Participation of several connected parties in the proceedings.....	282
11.6 Connected agreements and arbitration clause in one of them.....	286
11.7 Succession in the contract.....	288
11.8 Third parties.....	294
11.9 Consolidation of proceedings	297
11.10 Multiparty arbitration.....	302
CHAPTER 12. THE ARBITRATOR.....	307
12.1 Relationship between the parties and the arbitrator: contract to arbitrate...307
12.2 Sole arbitrator or arbitral tribunal – even or odd number – the umpire....312
12.3 Criteria for choosing the arbitrator.....	318
12.4 Direct or indirect appointment – Intuitus personae	322
12.5 Appointment – acceptance – lack of designation.....	324
12.6 Capacity of the arbitrator – sex and nationality.....	326
12.7 Physical person or legal entity.....	328
12.8 Training of arbitrators	329
12.9 Impartiality – absence – misconduct – challenge.....	330
12.10 Termination – replacement – truncated arbitration – effects.....	345
12.11 Revocation, dismissal and challenge.....	350
12.12 Rules of conduct	352
12.13 Liability – immunity	356
12.14 Remuneration.....	359

12.15 Possibility of appointing a secretary to the arbitral tribunal	360
12.16 Substitute arbitrators.....	361
12.17 Arbitrator's involvement before State Courts.....	361
 CHAPTER 13. THE ROLE OF THE COURTS OF ARBITRATION.....	365
13.1 Ad hoc or administered arbitration	365
13.2 Relationship between the parties and the Court of Arbitration.....	367
13.3 Litigation against arbitral institutions.....	369
13.4 Anti-suit injunctions	372
13.5 Relationship between the Court of Arbitration and the arbitrators.....	374
13.6 The award and the Court of Arbitration.....	375
 CHAPTER 14. THE ROLE OF STATE COURTS AIDING ARBITRATION.....	379
14.1 Appointment of the arbitrators.....	379
14.2 Intervention to compel submission of dispute to arbitration or terms of reference	385
14.3 State Courts' rulings on validity of the arbitration agreement.....	385
14.4 Challenge of arbitrators	389
14.5 Identification of the Court having jurisdiction.....	394
14.6 Intervention during evidence	395
14.7 Consolidation of proceedings	399
14.8 Filing of the award.....	400
14.9 Final or binding nature of the award	401
14.10 Interlocutory injunctions.....	404
14.11 Aid not interference.....	406
14.12 Whether to review the merits of the award.....	407
14.13 Orders in respect of security for costs.....	413
 CHAPTER 15. SUBSTANTIVE LAW	417
15.1 Choice by the parties	417
15.1.1 Express choice.....	418
15.1.2 Tacit choice.....	422
15.2 Deviation from the law chosen by the parties.....	425
15.3 Choice by the arbitrators	426
15.4 Lex mercatoria	438
15.5 The trunc commun	446
15.6 Lack of proof of the foreign substantive law.....	455

CHAPTER 16. EX BONO ET AEQUO DECISIONS AND AMIABLE COMPOSITION.....	457
16.1 Ex bono et aequo	457
16.1.1 Common law hostility	461
16.1.2 Aequitas in Roman law.....	462
16.1.3 Equity in England at the time of Norman Kings.....	462
16.1.4 Similarities between the two notions.....	463
16.1.5 Actual application of ex bono et aequo	463
16.1.6 Ex bono et aequo and the modern legal systems	466
16.1.7 Aequitas in international arbitration and public policy	467
16.1.8 Limits to discretionary authority under aequitas	469
16.1.9 Conclusions	469
16.2 Amiable composition	469
16.2.1 Original notion	469
16.2.2 Authority as amiable compositeur	471
16.2.3 The French notion	471
16.2.4 Distinction between amiable composition and ex bono et aequo	471
16.2.5 Situations where the amiable compositeur is instructed to decide.....	473
CHAPTER 17. APPLICABLE PROCEDURAL LAW	475
17.1 Parties' freedom of choice.....	475
17.2 Lack of choice – possibility to apply a procedural law different from that of the place of arbitration.....	478
17.3 Denationalization of arbitral proceedings.....	484
17.4 Nationless vis-a-vis international arbitration.....	485
17.5 No absolute need for a national procedural law.....	486
17.6 Supranationality of arbitration rules.....	487
17.7 No need for a national procedural law for international arbitration.....	488
17.8 Several procedural laws and procedural tronc commun	497
17.9 Rationale and effects of the choice of a procedural law different from the law of the place of arbitration.....	498
17.10 Procedural public policy	500
17.11 Conclusions	500
CHAPTER 18. ARBITRATION AND PUBLIC POLICY	503
18.1 The role of public policy.....	503
18.2 Public policy and normes d'application immédiate	504
18.3 Public policy and fraude à la loi	505
18.4 Domestic public policy and international public policy	505

18.5 Foreign public law	506
18.6 Substantive public policy and procedural public policy	507
18.7 Procedural public policy	511
18.8 Substantive public policy	522
18.9 Conclusions	531

CHAPTER 19. EC LAW, THE BRUSSELS CONVENTION AND ARBITRATION.....

19.1 The Brussels Convention.....	537
19.1.1 Arbitration-ambit of its exclusion from the convention.....	537
19.1.2 Referral by arbitrators of preliminary issues to the European Court of Justice	538
19.1.3 The European Court of Justice as arbitrator	539
19.2 EC Competition law and arbitration.....	539
19.2.1 Disputes capable of arbitration	539
19.2.2 Foreign applicable substantive law and EC competition law	540
19.2.3 The strict approach.....	540
19.2.4 The more recent approach.....	541
19.2.5 Public policy nature of articles 85–86 Rome Treaty.....	543
19.2.6 Applicability of EC Law by the arbitral tribunal of its own initiative.....	543
19.2.7 Arbitral precedents	544
19.2.8 Court precedents	544
19.3 Directive 93/13 EC, consumers' protection and arbitration	545

CHAPTER 20. SPEED IN ARBITRATION.....

20.1 Delays during the proceedings	547
20.2 Speed and quality.....	548
20.3 Due speed.....	548
20.4 Accelerated arbitration.....	549
20.5 Fast track arbitration.....	550
20.6 ICC fast track arbitration	551
20.7 Arbitration on line	553

CHAPTER 21. DOCUMENTS ONLY ARBITRATION

21.1 Specific problems of middle size and small claims	555
21.2 Consumer arbitration	556
21.3 Documents only arbitration.....	557
21.4 Documents only arbitration and due process.....	558

CHAPTER 22. THE VENUE OF THE PROCEEDINGS.....	563
22.1 Notion of venue	563
22.2 Effects of the choice of the venue	564
22.3 Criteria for the choice of the venue.....	565
22.4 Delegation of the choice of the venue	566
22.5 Holding part of the proceedings elsewhere.....	567
22.6 Effects of non compliance with the venue	568
22.7 Change of venue.....	569
22.8 Lack of choice of venue and lack of designation of authority	569
 CHAPTER 23. PRELIMINARY ISSUES AND INITIAL STAGE	571
23.1 Basic premise for arbitral proceedings	571
23.2 Parties' representation.....	572
23.3 Formation of the arbitral tribunal	575
23.4 Minutes of meetings.....	577
23.5 Language of the proceedings.....	578
23.6 Preliminary issues.....	580
23.7 Decision on arbitral jurisdiction: Kompetenz-Kompetenz	584
23.8 Nature and limits of the terms of reference	586
23.9 Pre-trial conference v. order for directions	592
23.10 The arbitrator's duty to assist.....	593
23.11 The role of the chairman of the arbitral tribunal.....	594
23.12 Connection with non-arbitrable disputes	595
23.13 Counterclaims	596
23.14 Lis pendens between arbitral and Court proceedings	600
23.15 Multi-fora disputes	606
23.16 Dilatory tactics	608
23.17 Effects of lack of recourse to earlier conciliation or of lack of referral of the dispute to the Engineer.....	609
23.18 Exchange of pleadings.....	611
23.19 New claims.....	612
23.20 Timetable of the proceedings.....	614
 CHAPTER 24. INTERLOCUTORY INJUNCTIONS	617
24.1 In domestic arbitration.....	617
24.1.1 Authority of the arbitrator	617
24.1.2 Authority reserved to state courts	620
24.1.3 Concurrent authority of the arbitrator and of state courts	622
24.2 In international arbitration	624
24.2.1 Authority under the applicable procedural law	624

24.2.2 Procedural public policy of the lex loci arbitratus	630
24.3 Distinctions between holding measures and interlocutory injunctions	631
24.4 Judicial and arbitral precedents	633
24.5 Standards for the issue of interlocutory injunctions.....	644
24.6 State Court's enforcement of arbitral injunctions.....	644
24.7 Arbitrator's authority to vacate injunction granted by state court.....	645
24.8 Interlocutory injunctions in the form of awards	646
24.9 Interference between court proceedings and arbitral interim injunctions...	647
24.10 Pre-arbitral referee.....	647
24.11 Damages for wrongful injunction.....	648
24.12 Payment orders during the proceedings.....	649
24.13 Conclusions.....	650
 CHAPTER 25. THE EVIDENCE STAGE AND THE FINAL STAGE.....	653
25.1 The burden and standard of proof	653
25.2 Admissibility of evidence – substantive or procedural issue	656
25.3 Leave to call evidence.....	658
25.4 The taking of evidence.....	665
25.5 Publicity of hearings.....	667
25.6 Recording of hearings	668
25.7 Documentary evidence – discovery.....	670
25.8 Evidence by witnesses	679
25.9 Consequences of false testimony	689
25.10 Tandem witness examination	690
25.11 Evidence by the parties.....	691
25.12 Applications to state courts for assistance in the taking of evidence.....	693
25.13 Experts	695
25.14 Presumptions	702
25.15 Personal knowledge of the arbitrator	704
25.16 Need for availability of international standard rules of evidence.....	706
25.17 Time bars and non-mandatory terms.....	707
25.18 Closing of the hearings and final statement of claims and defences	710
25.19 Arbitrators dispensed with compliance with strict rules of evidence.....	711
 CHAPTER 26. BREACH OF DUE PROCESS.....	715
26.1 Notion of due process	715
26.2 Equal treatment in regard to the appointment of arbitrators.....	717
26.3 Partiality or lack of independence	718
26.4 Term to appear.....	719
26.5 Time limits to file pleadings.....	720

26.6 Discovery of documents	720
26.7 Right to call and to examine witnesses	721
26.8 The right to present one's case and to oppose the case of the opposite party	723
26.9 Other breaches of due process	728
26.10 Concealed enemies of due process	728
26.11 Parties' right to representation by counsel	728
26.12 Denial of justice	729
 CHAPTER 27. THE AWARD	731
27.1 Possibility of interim awards	731
27.2 Interim awards and orders	736
27.3 Final award	738
27.4 Finality of interim awards	739
27.5 Arbitral post award proceedings: correction, interpretation and additional award	739
27.6 Duty to decide	748
27.7 Time limit for the award	751
27.8 Lack of signature by all the arbitrators	757
27.9 Discussion and decision	758
27.10 Non-attendance at the decision	760
27.11 Decision by a majority or casting vote	763
27.12 Dissenting opinions	766
27.13 Inertia of the parties	769
27.14 Contents of the award	772
27.15 Reasons of the award	777
27.16 Delegation by the arbitrators of their authority to decide	781
27.17 Sanctity of deliberations chamber or power of State Courts to invade	782
27.18 Place where award is made	784
27.19 Award by consent of the parties	786
27.20 Effects of the award	787
27.21 Binding effect of precedents – stare decisis	797
27.22 Confidentiality in arbitration	799
27.23 Publication of the award	806
27.24 Scrutiny of the draft award by the arbitral institution	808
 CHAPTER 28. COSTS INTEREST AND HIGHER DAMAGES	811
28.1 Costs of the proceedings	811
28.1.1 Arbitrators' fees	811
28.1.2 The arbitrator's expenses	812

28.1.3 Joint liability of the parties	812
28.1.4 Advances	812
28.1.5 Other expenses of the arbitral proceedings	813
28.1.6 Administrative dues of the arbitral institution	813
28.1.7 Witnesses Expenses and per diem	813
28.1.8 Security for costs	814
28.1.9 Costs follow the event	815
28.2 Interest	815
28.2.1 Pre-award and post-award interest.....	816
28.3 Higher damages.....	818
28.4 Extra costs for inappropriate conduct	818
 CHAPTER 29. UNCITRAL ARBITRATION	821
29.1 Uncitral's achievements in the field of arbitration.....	821
29.2 The New York Convention.....	823
29.3 The Uncitral arbitration rules	823
29.4 The Uncitral Model Law.....	829
29.5 The Uncitral guidelines.....	851
 CHAPTER 30. FILING AND NOTIFICATION OF THE AWARD	855
30.1 Filing with the arbitral institution and delivery of the award	855
30.2 Prohibition to the arbitrators to deliver directly to the parties	859
30.3 Filing of the award with a state court or governmental agency	860
30.4 Effects of refusing to file.....	865
 CHAPTER 31. CHALLENGES OF AWARDS.....	869
31.1 Classes of challenges	869
31.2 Extension of judicial review by contract	872
31.3 Prior waiver to challenges – effects	874
31.4 Waiver by conduct during arbitral proceedings	876
31.5 Jurisdiction on challenges.....	877
31.6 Challenges in the international conventions	884
31.7 Remedies available before the national courts	886
31.8 Challenges before another arbitrator	893
31.9 Court precedents.....	894
31.10 No setting aside if arbitrator has chosen from available remedies.....	898
31.11 Setting aside for dénaturation (manifest disregard) of contractual documents	898
31.12 Challenges against the first instance award when appellate arbitral proceedings are provided for.....	899

31.13 Anti-suit injunctions against actions to vacate	900
31.14 Challenges outside the State of origin	901
CHAPTER 32. ENFORCEMENT IN THE STATE OF ORIGIN.....	905
32.1 Obtaining the effects of an enforceable instrument	905
32.2 Enforcement proceedings	910
32.3 Time bar for starting enforcement proceedings	911
32.4 Oppositions to enforcement.....	911
32.5 State immunity from enforcement.....	912
32.6 Stay of enforcement	914
32.7 Partial enforcement	914
32.8 Does rejection of claims to set aside equal leave to enforce?	915
32.9 Refusal of leave to enforce local award for non-compliance with municipal procedural law.....	916
CHAPTER 33. ENFORCEMENT AND RECOGNITION IN OTHER STATES	917
33.1 Distinction between recognition and enforcement	917
33.2 Nature of the enforcement order: a step of the enforcement proceedings? ...	918
33.3 Recognition as a counterclaim or as a defence	919
33.4 Need to enforce the interim award together with the final one.....	920
33.5 Enforcement of judgment entered on an award.....	920
33.6 Forum shopping.....	922
33.7 Counterclaims in recognition proceedings.....	922
33.8 Enforcement of part of the award.....	923
33.9 Autonomy of enforcement proceedings from setting aside proceedings.....	924
33.10 Enforcement of a set aside award.....	926
33.11 Enforcement of conflicting decisions.....	930
33.12 Time bar for enforcement	931
33.13 Preventive independent proceedings to establish that foreign award may not be recognised.....	931
33.14 Enforcement in the absence of international conventions.....	932
33.15 Enforcement not sought under international conventions	936
33.16 Enforcement under international conventions	937
33.17 Enforcement in various states.....	942
CHAPTER 34. RECOGNITION AND ENFORCEMENT UNDER THE NEW YORK CONVENTION.....	943
34.1 Field of application	943

34.1.1 Relationship with domestic law and other international conventions	943
34.1.2 The more favourable right provision	944
34.1.3 Foreign v. international and domestic awards	945
34.1.4 Universality and the two reservations	946
34.1.5 Need for domestic implementation	947
34.2 Recognition of arbitration agreements	948
34.2.1 Special meaning of recognition	948
34.2.2 Form requirements of convention awards	949
34.2.3 Contents of the arbitration agreement	951
34.2.4 Reference to arbitration	951
34.3 Recognition and enforcement of awards	952
34.3.1 Documents to be filed when applying for leave to enforce	952
34.4 Grounds for refusal	956
34.4.1 Grounds to be raised by the opposite party	956
34.4.2 Grounds for refusal on the Court's motion	961
34.5 Interim awards	963
34.6 Enforcement procedure	964
CHAPTER 35. THE CONTINUAL SEARCH FOR IMPROVEMENTS.....	965
35.1 Lessons from the past	965
35.2 Excessive formalism	969
35.3 Court interference v. court non-intervention	971
35.4 Need for a constructive dialogue	972
35.5 Reduction of challenges.....	975
35.6 One arbitrator and the award in one year.....	976
35.7 Appeal to an appellate arbitration panel.....	976
35.8 Leave to appeal conditional on the placing of a security (self-executing mechanism).....	978
35.9 One supra-national Court of arbitration and an immediately enforceable appellate award	980
35.10 A clearer position on the main legal issues: Tronc commun and procedural law	984
35.11 Third generation arbitration.....	985
35.12 The continuous search for improvement	986
TABLE OF CASES	989
TABLE OF AWARDS	1013
BIBLIOGRAPHY.....	1019
INDEX	1051