

Table of Contents

Ruth HaCohen
Preface	1

Acknowledgments	5
-----------------	---

Taha Muhammad Ali
Revenge
A Poem
Translated by Peter Cole, Yahya Hijazi, and Gabriel Levin	9

Laura Jockusch, Andreas Kraft, and Kim Wünschmann
Introduction	12

Revenge

David P. Barash and Judith Eve Lipton
The Three Rs:
Retaliation, Revenge, and Redirected Aggression	31

Kim Wünschmann
Revenge and Justice in the Concentration Camps:
Social Dynamics in the "Jewish Blocks"	51

Mark Roseman
"No, Herr Führer!" Jewish Revenge after the Holocaust:
Between Fantasy and Reality	69

- Andreas Kraft
Narratives of Jewish Revenge after the Holocaust 91

Retribution

- Ron Dudai
*Retribution in the Underground:
 The IRA's Campaign against Informers* 111

- Laura Jockusch
*In Search of Retribution:
 Nazi Collaborators Trials in Jewish Courts
 in Postwar Germany* 127

- Alon Harel
*Why Only the State Can Punish:
 The Moral Case against Privatization of Criminal Sanctions* 146

Reconciliation

- José María Sánchez de León Serrano
*The Spectacle of the World:
 Oneness and Reconciliation in Modern Thought* 165

- Yotam Benziman
The Morality of Dialogic Forgiveness 196

- Günther Pallaver
*Terrorism and Reconciliation in South Tyrol:
 Negotiations, Consociational Democracy, and Power-Sharing* 212

Zohar Kampf
Appeasing Truth:
How Historical Facts are Discursively (Re)constructed in
Processes of Reconciliation	237

Preface

Valerie Hébert
"Truth Heals" and Other Myths:
Reconciliation as False Promise in Post-Atrocity
Justice Processes	250

Contributors	266
---------------------	-----