

CONTENTS

List of figures	viii
List of tables	x
List of contributors	xi
Introduction Joanna Shapland, Stephen Farrall and Anthony Bottoms	1
SECTION I
Agency, structure and desistance from crime	9
1 Mechanisms underlying the desistance process: reflections on 'A theory of cognitive transformation' Peggy C. Giordano	11
2 Human agency, criminal careers and desistance Christoffer Carlsson	28
3 'I've always tried but I hadn't got the willpower': understanding pathways to desistance in the Republic of Ireland Deirdre Healy	50
4 Structural context and pathways to desistance: research in Spain José Cid and Joel Martí	66

SECTION II

Life phases and desistance

83

- 5 Key behavioral aspects of desistance from conduct problems and delinquency 85
Rolf Loeber, Magda Stouthamer-Loeber and Lia Ahonen
- 6 Learning to desist in early adulthood: the Sheffield Desistance Study 99
Anthony Bottoms and Joanna Shapland
- 7 Issues to consider in future work on desistance from adolescence to early adulthood: observations from the Pathways to Desistance study 126
Edward P. Mulvey and Carol A. Schubert
- 8 How important are life-course transitions in explaining desistance? Examining the extent to which marriage, divorce and parenthood account for the age-crime relationship in former juvenile delinquents 144
Arjan Blokland and Niek De Schipper
- 9 Timing of change: are life course transitions causes or consequences of desistance? 170
Torbjørn Skardhamar and Jukka Savolainen

SECTION III

Criminal justice and state interventions

185

- 10 Understanding desistance in an assisted context: key findings from tracking progress on-probation 187
Stephen Farrall
- 11 In search of desistance: notes from an Australian study 204
Mark Halsey
- 12 The increasing stickiness of public labels 222
Christopher Uggen and Lindsay Blahnik
- 13 Understanding and identifying desistance: an example exploring the utility of sealing criminal records 244
Megan C. Kurlychek, Shawn D. Bushway and Megan Denver

14	The fuel in the tank or the hole in the boat? Can sanctions support desistance?	227
12.5	Fergus McNeill	265
12.6	Diversity or congruence? Sketching the future: an afterword	282
12.7	Joanna Shapland, Stephen Farrall and Anthony Bottoms	293
12.8	Index	294
12.9	Spatial distribution of African American felons as percentage of voting age population	234
12.10	Secondary or tertiary spillover on health care	235
12.11	Time to arrest among drug treatment group	236
12.12	Time to robbery/burglary	237
12.13	Time to cocaine or heroin use	237
12.14	Female arrest rates by welfare and unemployment	239
12.15	Female violence by education level	239
12.16	The change process in US adult recidivism patterns	242
12.17	A heuristic and interactive model of the early stages of desistance	6.1
12.18	Global psychosocial change by age for each offending trajectory	7.1
12.19	Temperance scores by age for each offending trajectory	7.2
12.20	Percentage decline in the likelihood of conviction by age (any conviction)	8.1
12.21	Effect of life-course transitions on the likelihood of conviction (any conviction)	8.2
12.22	Life-course transition by age	8.3
12.23	Unconditional and adjusted desistance curve (any conviction)	8.4
12.24	Unconditional and adjusted desistance curve (violence, property, traffic)	8.5
12.25	Three ideal typical trajectories derived from theory	9.1
12.26	Logistic regression parameters for the probability of offending each year before and after the year of marriage	9.2
12.27	Predicted probabilities of offending in each month in the 36 months leading up to and following job entry: average results	9.3a
12.28	Predicted probabilities of offending in each month in the 36 months leading up to and following job entry: results by latent trajectory groups	9.3b
12.29	Model of impact of probation supervision	10.1
12.30	Emotional trajectory of desistance (sweep 4)	10.2
12.31	Victimisation rates (percentages) by desistance status	10.3
12.32	Structural and individual level processes and criminal careers	10.4
12.33	U.S. age distribution of arrest	12.1
12.34	Year 1 array of legal and illegal activities	12.2
12.35	Year 2 array of legal and illegal activities	12.3