

Contents

Preface	vii
Bios of Contributors	ix
Introduction	xv
PART I TAKING STOCK	1
1 A Refresher on Evaluation Tamra Pearson d'Estrée	3
2 Peacebuilding Evaluation: Two Decades of Evolution Cheyenne Scharbatke-Church	19
3 Challenges in Peacebuilding Evaluation: Voices from the Field Mohammed Abu-Nimer	43
4 Talking for the Sake of It, or Making a Difference? Assessing and Evaluating Track Two Diplomacy Peter Jones	69
PART II NEW DIRECTIONS	91
5 Scrambling after Moving Targets: Monitoring and Evaluation Applied to Adaptive Management Approaches in Peacebuilding Peter Woodrow and Isabella Jean	93
6 Using Action Evaluation to Identify Shared Conceptions of Success: Toward Generating Islands of Theory Jay Rothman and Deborah Sachare	113

7	Everyday Peace Indicators: Renegotiating Rigor for Peacebuilding Evidence	129
	Pamina Firchow and Zach Tilton
8	Judging Peacebuilding: Attending to Values in Evaluation	141
	Reina C. Neufeldt
PART III CONTINUAL LEARNING		157
9	Reflective Practice in the Face of Complexity	159
	Tamra Pearson d'Estrée
10	Developing Essential Evaluation Competency in Conflict Resolution Professionals	173
	Mara L. Schoeny and Susan H. Allen
11	"Through the Portal and What the Peacebuilding Field Found There": The DME for Peace Website and the Path to More Rigorous Design, Monitoring, and Evaluation Practice	191
	Nicholas Oatley
	References	209
	Index	231