

Content

Introduction – All Happy Regions are Alike

9

Adam Bence Balazs

Theoretical Approaches

Region and Identity. The Perspective from Central Europe and the Balkans

27

Ladislav Cabada

Eastern Europe's Orientalised Identity

63

Kinga Anna Gajda

Between Identity and Politics. In Search of a Measurement of Identity Freedom – the Case of the Visegrad Group and of the Western Balkans

83

Robert Wiszniowski and Kamil Glinka

National Identity vs Regional Belonging

“Not Racists but Careful.” Czech Perceptions of Visegrad Collaboration during the Crisis of European Migration Policies

109

Ondřej Daniel

Leaders and Ethnicity in post-Yugoslav States: The Discursive Politics of Aleksandar Vucic and Kolinda Grabar-Kitarovic

125

Adis Maksic

Religious Institutions as Agents of Continuing Ethnic Mobilisation in Croatia and Bosnia and Herzegovina

151

Ešref Kenan Rašidagić

Jewish Muslim Poles: Frankism, Modern Polish National Identity and its Ambivalent Multicultural Heritage	171
Adam Balcer
Identity Politics in History Textbooks in the Region of the Former Yugoslavia	197
Tamara Trošt and Jovana Mihajlović Trbovic
Contemporary Language-Naming Practices in the Western Balkans	231
Nikola Zečević
New Regimes, Old Fears. Layers of Democracy and Regime Changes in Hungary	259
Andrea Schmidt
Conclusion – Contradictions of Regional Identity and National Interests	289
Christina Griessler
List of Authors	301