

Contents

Preface to the Second Edition	viii
1 Introduction	1
The Study of American Politics	1
The Chapters to Come	6
2 Society, Economy and Political Beliefs	7
The Growth of the USA: Immigration and Demographic Change	7
The American Economy in Transition	13
Social Structure	15
Beliefs and Values: Dominant Ideology or Political Culture?	23
Further Reading	32
3 Constitutional Government	33
Origins	34
The American Constitution	37
Ratification	44
The Adaptive Constitution	46
Assessing the Constitution	51
Further Reading	53
4 80,000 Governments: Federalism and Intergovernmental Relations	54
Federalism in Theory and Practice	55
The Evolution of American Federalism	58

Competitive Interdependence: American Intergovernmental Relations since 1970	61
The Reagan Administration: Federalism Revived?	72
Is Federalism Dead?	75
Further Reading	76
5 American Political Parties in Transition	77
The Functions of Parties	78
Crisis and Change in the American Party System	83
Party Decline	89
Explaining Party Decline	95
Does the Decline of Party Matter?	98
Further Reading	100
6 Political Participation and Electoral Behaviour	101
Patterns of American Electoral Behaviour	103
Rational Voters and Inchoate Parties: Where Do We Go From Here?	119
Non-Electoral Political Participation	122
Further Reading	125
7 US Legislators and their Constituents	126
Representation and Congress	127
Congressional Elections	129
Legislators as Rational Actors	135
The Work of Members of Congress	140
Further Reading	142
8 Congress as Policy Maker	143
The Functions of Congress	144
The Structure of Power in Congress	145
Congress Under Fire	152
Reform and Change in Congress	160
Further Reading	167
9 Presidential Power	168
Formal Sources of Power	169
Informal Powers	171
The Presidency in Crisis	174

Presidential Resources	190
Assessing the Presidency: Presidential Power in the 1990s	199
Further Reading	200
10 The Federal Bureaucracy	201
The Federal Bureaucracy: Organization and Function	202
The Bureaucracy: How Uncontrollable?	209
The Inherent Power of Bureaucracy	210
The Bureaucratic Hydra: A Uniquely American Phenomenon?	211
Reform Attempts	216
Concluding Remarks – and a Word of Caution	219
Further Reading	220
11 Organized Interests: The Real Power?	221
Interests, Groups and Lobbyists	222
Economic Groups	224
Professional Groups	230
Promotional Groups	231
Political Action Committees	233
The Washington Lobby	236
Interest Groups: For and Against	236
Further Reading	240
12 The Supreme Court and Judicial Politics	241
The American Legal System	243
The Supreme Court: Decision Making	247
The Court and Political Power	254
Further Reading	267
13 The Style and Substance of Policy Making	269
Social Policy in America: Self Reliance and State Dependence	270
Managing Economic Change	274
Managing Foreign Affairs	289
Coda: The Future of the American Political Economy	295
Appendix The Constitution of the United States	300
Index	326