(BETWEEN PAGES 192-193)

- 1 Maria Montessori. A portrait by Sir Frank Salisbury.
- 2 Maria Montessori as a university lecturer and practising physician in Rome (circa 1905).
- 3 Above. Exercises of practical life. "Washing day" in a Montessori school in Berlin.
- 4 Below. A room in a Montessori school in Rotterdam, showing a part of the carefully prepared environment.
- 5 Above. Indirect preparation for writing: the sandpaper touchboards, "Rough and Smooth."
- 6 Below. Indirect preparation for writing: composing words and sentences with the movable letters (Denmark).
- 7 Writing has now come of itself, and the big words come pouring easily out of the small head (Acton School, England).
- 8 Above. First steps in addition with number rods. "Steps," be it noted, in a literal as well as a metaphysical sense.
- 9 Below. History Time-Line from 2000 B.C. (Abraham) to A.D. 2000. It is divided into centuries.
- 10 Working out, by means of coloured symbolical pegs, the square of a trinomial (Athens).
- 11 Dr. Montessori at the age of eighty, at the Gatehouse Montessori School, St. Bartholomew the Great, London. This was during her last visit to England (1951).
