

Contents

Editors' Biographies	xv
List of Contributors	xvii
List of Abbreviations	xix

Introduction: Academic Legacy of Wojciech Sadurski, Rule of Law, and Mnemonic Constitutionalism in Central and Eastern Europe	1
Uladzislau Belavusau and Aleksandra Gliszczyńska-Grabias
A. Introduction to the Liber Amicorum : From the Dark Past to the Turbulent Present	1
B. Academic Legacy of Wojciech Sadurski and the Rule of Law	4
C. Mnemonic Constitutionalism and Memory Laws in the Sore Democracies	5
D. Overview and Summary of the Volume	12
E. Concluding Remarks	16

PART I: POPULISM AND DEMOCRATIC DECLINE IN CENTRAL AND EASTERN EUROPE

1. The Rise of Nationalist-Authoritarian Populism and the Crisis of Liberal Democracy in Central and Eastern Europe	21
Bojan Bugarič
A. Introduction	21
B. The Nationalist-Authoritarian Populist Turn in Central and Eastern Europe	24
C. The Political Economy of the Populist Surge	31
D. The Deeper Layer of Causes—Historical Factors and Path Dependence	33
E. Conclusion	36
2. Constitutional Breakdown, Backsliding, or New Post-Conventional Constitutionalism?	39
Adam Czarnota
A. Introduction	39
B. Constitutionalism and its Social Sources	40
C. Constitutional Crisis as a Temporary Illness Called Populism?	44
D. Constitutionalism as Politics of Conflict	46
E. New or Post-Conventional Constitutionalism	48

3. Democratic Erosion Without Prerequisites? Poland and the Two Liberalisms	51
Tom Ginsburg	51
A. Introduction	53
B. Two Styles of Analysis, Two Liberalisms	57
C. Implications for Solutions
4. The Alternatives to a Bite or a Bark: After Launching Article 7 TEU Against the Hungarian Government	63
Gábor Halmai	63
A. Introduction	64
B. Prior EU Attempts to Cope with the Situation in Hungary	68
C. The Impact of the Parliamentary Decision	69
D. Alternatives to Article 7 TEU	77
E. Conclusion	79
5. Polish Lessons: Backsliding, Sabotage, and the Rule of Law
Martin Krygier	79
A. Introduction	81
B. Institutionalization and its Trials	85
C. Populist Institutionalizers and De-Institutionalizers	89
D. How Should Lawyers Respond?
6. The Rule of Law Paradox in the 2016 Constitutional Amendments in Albania	95
Darinka Piqani	95
A. Introduction
B. The Emergence of Constitutional Review in Post-Communist Albania	97
C. Constitutional Reform of 2016	99
D. The Impasse of the Albanian Constitutional Court as a Challenge to the Rule of Law	104
E. Conclusion	110
7. Constitutional Security in a State of Emergency	111
Mirosław Wyrzykowski	111
A. Introduction	111
B. Hostile Takeover of the Constitutional Democracy	121
C. Conclusion

PART II: THE EU ROLE VIS-À-VIS RULE OF LAW

8. Reinvigorating Democracy in the European Union: Lessons from Ireland's Citizens' Assembly?	127
Gráinne de Búrca	127
A. Introduction

B. The Democratic Ills of the European Union	128
C. The Broader Crisis of Democracy and Political Representation	132
D. Lessons from Ireland's Experience?	136
E. A Citizens' Assembly for the EU?	143
9. On Barks, Bites, and Promises	147
Dimitry Vladimirovich Kochenov
A. Crisis as an Opportunity	147
B. Structural Impediments to the Use of Art 7 TEU	150
C. A Realistic Scenario for the Future	154
10. Article 7 TEU: From 'Nuclear Option' to 'Sisyphean Procedure'?	157
Laurent Pech
A. Introduction	157
B. The Myth: Article 7 TEU as a 'Nuclear Option'	158
C. The Reality: Article 7(1) TEU as a Sisyphean Procedure	159
D. Shortcomings Revealed by the Ongoing Article 7 Probes	167
E. The Way Forward	173
11. A Social Theory of Constitutional Imaginaries: Beyond the Unity of topos-ethnos-nomos and its European Context	175
Jiří Přibáň
A. Introduction	175
B. The Constitutional Semantics and Legitimation Beyond the Unity of topos-ethnos-nomos	176
C. In Praise of Value Pluralism	179
D. Imaginaries as poiesis of Constitutional Unity and Authenticity: A Brief Critique of Constitutional Existentialism	181
E. Self-Constitution of Society and its Selfhood	183
F. The Concept and Function of Constitutional Imaginaries	185
G. Constitutional Imaginaries of European Integration	187
H. Concluding Remarks: Towards a Social Theory of Constitutional Imaginaries	189
12. Two Charters and a Pillar: The Slow Constitutionalization of Social Rights in European Law	191
Bruno de Witte
A. Introduction	191
B. New Foundations of a European System for the Protection of Social Rights (2000)	193
C. The Social Turn of the Lisbon Treaty and the Enhanced Legal Status of the Charter (2009)	195
D. The Proclamation of the European Pillar of Social Rights (2017)	198
E. Conclusion	202

PART III: LIBERAL CONSTITUTIONALISM
AND MILITANT DEMOCRACY: CONSTITUTIONAL
REVIEW AND PUBLIC REASON

13. Breaking Down the Meaning of Constitutional Breakdown	205
Tom Gerald Daly
A. Introduction: The Worst of Students, and the Best of Times?	205
B. Why 'Breakdown' Rather than 'Erosion' or 'Decay'?	207
C. Can the Democratic Breakdown Literature Offer Additional Insights?	212
D. Pinning Down Constitutional Breakdown	218
E. Conclusion: What's in a Word?	219
14. An Enlightened Man	221
Samuel Issacharoff
A. Introduction	221
B. Courts in the Post-Soviet Era	222
C. Democracy under Threat	225
D. Constitutional Optimism	229
15. On Legalism, Illiberal Takeover, and the Immune System of Constitutional Democracy	231
Armen Mazmanyan
A. Law and Constitutional Democracy: Between Communism and Populism	231
B. What is Legalism and How Does it Affect Constitutional Democracy?	232
C. Political Legalism	234
D. Embedded Legalism	237
E. Legalism and Constitutional Democracy's Immune System	240
16. Diffuse Constitutionality Review in Germany	243
Mathias Möschel
A. Introduction	243
B. Historical Examples of Diffuse Constitutionality Review	245
C. Contemporary Examples of Diffuse Constitutionality Review	249
D. (Comparative) Assessment and Concluding Observations	254
17. The Problem of Peer Review in Militant Democracy	259
Jan-Werner Müller
A. Introduction	259
B. Militant Democracy: A Barebones Account	260
C. Peer Review in Party Ban Procedures	263
D. Peer Review in Supranational Democracy Protection	266
E. Conclusion	269

18. Extracting Voters from the Nation: Regime-Building in Nineteenth-Century Hungary and England through Electoral Legislation	271
András Sajó
A. Introduction	271
B. Electoral Reform in Hungary 1872–1874	272
C. The 1866–1867 Debates in the English Parliament on Electoral Reform	275
D. Comparing Electoral Regimes in their Making: Two Concepts of ‘Flesh and Blood’	277
E. Unfinished Conclusions: Towards Regime Building	284
19. Public Reason and Illiberal Democracy	287
Anna Śledzińska-Simon
A. From Faith to Reason, from Reason to Emotionalism and Deception	287
B. Public Reason in Liberal Democracy	289
C. Public Reason in Judicial Review	291
D. The Limits of Public Reason	294
E. Illiberal Democracy	297
F. Public Reason in Illiberal Democracy	299
20. Liberal Nationalism’s Precarious Prospects	303
Neil Walker
A. The Vigilant Liberal	303
B. Some Definitions	305
C. Illiberal and Liberal National Sovereignty	307
D. Contemporary Trends	314
Epilogue	317
J.H.H. Weiler
A. Dear Reader	317
B. Kosher Observance	321
C. What’s the Point of Kosher Observance?	322
D. Exclusion, Inclusion, and Identity	323
E. The Monotheistic Revolution and the Dilemma of Presence	324
F. The Liberating Yoke	326
G. Covenantal Normativity—Autonomy and Heteronomy	329
Biography of Professor Wojciech Sadurski	333
List of Publications by Wojciech Sadurski	335
Index	345