

Contents

List of Contributors	vii
Foreword	x
Series Editor's Preface	xi

1	Introduction: Migrant Domestic Workers in Europe	1
	Helma Lutz

PART ONE: DOMESTIC WORK – BUSINESS AS USUAL?

2	The Intersection of Childcare Regimes and Migration Regimes: A Three-Country Study	13
	Fiona Williams and Anna Gavanas

3	Migrations and the Restructuring of the Welfare State in Italy: Change and Continuity in the Domestic Work Sector	29
	Francesca Scrinzi

4	When Home Becomes a Workplace: Domestic Work as an Ordinary Job in Germany?	43
	Helma Lutz

5	Perceptions of Work in Albanian Immigrants' Testimonies and the Structure of Domestic Work in Greece	61
	Pothiti Hantzaroula

PART TWO: TRANSNATIONAL MIGRATION SPACES: POLICIES, FAMILIES AND HOUSEHOLD MANAGEMENT

6	The Globalisation of Domestic Service – An Historical Perspective	77
	Raffaella Sarti

7	Perpetually Foreign: Filipina Migrant Domestic Workers in Rome	99
	Rhacel Salazar Parreñas

8	Domestic Work and Transnational Care Chains in Spain	113
	Angeles Escriva and Emmeline Skinner

- 9 Contingencies Among Households:
Gendered Division of Labour and Transnational Household
Organization – The Case of Ukrainians in Austria 127
Bettina Haidinger

PART THREE: STATES AND MARKETS: MIGRATION REGIMES AND STRATEGIES

- 10 Risk and Risk Strategies in Migration:
Ukrainian Domestic Workers in Poland 145
Marta Kindler
- 11 Between Intimacy and Alienage: The Legal Construction of Domestic and Carework in the Welfare State 161
Guy Mundlak and Hila Shamir
- 12 Being Illegal in Europe: Strategies and Policies for Fairer
Treatment of Migrant Domestic Workers 177
Norbert Cyrus
- 13 Conclusion: Domestic Work, Migration and the New Gender Order
in Contemporary Europe 195
Gul Ozyegin and Pierette Hondagneu-Sotelo
- Index* 209