

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of contributors	viii
Acknowledgements	xv
1 Introduction to A Research Agenda for Academic Integrity : emerging issues in academic integrity research Tracey Bretag	1
2 The role of quality assurance and regulatory organizations to promote academic integrity Irene Glendinning	13
3 From moral awareness to academic integrity in Latin America Pablo Ayala-Enríquez, Nathalia Franco-Pérez, Jean G. Guerrero-Dib and Gonzalo Pizarro-Puccio	28
4 Academic integrity in Eastern Europe: beyond corruption and plagiarism Tomáš Foltýnek and Dita Dlabolová	40
5 Leveraging the teachable moment: what, if anything, can students learn from cheating? Tricia Bertram Gallant	55
6 Impediments to reporting contract cheating: exploring the role of emotions Felicity Prentice	69
7 Interactive approaches to learning about academic integrity: the role of fun and games Amanda White	86

8	Why students choose not to cheat Kiata Rundle, Guy Curtis and Joseph Clare	100
9	A changing focus: reconsidering research on contract cheating Erica J. Morris	112
10	Contract cheating at colleges and other non-university higher education providers Tracey Bretag and Rowena Harper	127
11	Technology, policy and research: establishing evidentiary standards for managing contract cheating cases Cath Ellis, Karen van Haeringen and David House	138
12	Multilingual essay mills: the need for research beyond English language commercial providers Sarah Elaine Eaton and Roswita Dressler	152
13	The use and misuse of online paraphrasing, editing and translation software Ann M. Rogerson	163
14	Academic integrity in mathematics education: breaking the silence Katherine Seaton	175
15	Cybersecurity: the next academic integrity frontier Phillip Dawson	187
	Index	200