

CONTENTS

SECTION ONE

Organizational Behavior: Scope and Method 3

- 1 Introduction to Organizational Behavior 4
What Is Organizational Behavior? 5 As a Set of Phenomena. As an Area of Study. OB as a Community of Interest Groups. The Evolution of OB, 12 Tensions in OB, 16 What Hath OB Wrought? 17 Whither Goeth OB? 18 Views of OB: Student and Practitioner, 19 Summary, 23 Questions for Discussion, 24 References, 24
- 2 Theory and Research in Organizational Behavior 26
Theory, 27 Percepts, Concepts, and Constructs. Types of Constructs. Informal versus Formal Theories. What Functions Does Theory Serve? What Are the Criteria for Evaluating a Theory? Theories in Progress, 37 Testing and Applying Theories, 38 Methods of Research, 40 Naturalistic Observation. Field Survey Research. Correlational Field Studies Using Objective Indices. Field Experiments. Laboratory Experiments. Strategies for Learning about Behavior in Organizations: Concluding Note, 56 Summary, 57 Questions for Discussion, 58 References, 59 Case for Section One, 60

SECTION TWO

Foundations of Behavior in Organizations 63

- 3 Learning 64
Behavior in Organizations, 65 Three Behavior Categories. What Managers Must Learn. Experience and Learning: Prerequisites for Behavior.

Learning Defined. Performance and Learning. Reproducible Behavioral Processes. Reproducible Behavioral Process Paradigms, 69 The Respondent (Classical) Conditioning Paradigm. The Operant (Instrumental) Conditioning Paradigm. Operant Contingencies of Reinforcement. Stimulus Control. Managing Contingencies of Reinforcement, 80 Positive and Negative Reinforcement. By-Products of Reinforcement Contingencies. Stimulus Control in Reinforcement Contingencies. Positive and Negative Punishment. Stimulus Control in Punishment Contingencies. Verbal Behavior, Reinforcement History, and Response Acquisition, 83 Concept Formation and Stimulus Control. Verbal Behaviors: Rule-Governed and Contingency-Shaped Behaviors. Social Learning Theory, 86 Theoretical Perspective. Learning by Response Consequences. Learning through Modeling. Modeling and Response (Performance) Acquisition, 90 The Response Acquisition Effect of Modeling. The Response Modulation Effect of Modeling. The Response Facilitation Effect of Modeling. The Status of the Model. Operant Response Shaping. Learning, Performance Maintenance, and Schedules of Reinforcement, 93 Continuous Reinforcement Schedule. Partial Reinforcement Schedules. The Law of Relative Effect. Noncontrived or Intrinsic Reinforcers, 98 Are Noncontrived/Intrinsic Reinforcers "Superior" to Contrived/Extrinsic Reinforcers? 99 Managing the Three Behaviors in Organizations, 101 Summary, 103 Questions for Discussion, 104 References, 105

4 Motives and Motivation 106
What Energizes Human Behavior? 107 Need Theory. Two-Factor Theory. What Directs Energized Behavior? 114 The Operant Model. Goal-Setting Theory. Expectancy Theory. Differences between the Expectancy and Operant Models. Once Behavior Is Channeled, How Is It Maintained? 122 The Operant Model. Goal Setting. Expectancy Theory: The Porter-Lawler Extension. Equity Theory. Attribution Theories. Summary, 130 Questions for Discussion, 130 References, 131

5 Decision Making 134
The Quality of Decisions, 136 Characteristics of Decisions, 137 Decision Making, Choice Making, and Problem Solving. The Structure of Decisions. Risk and Uncertainty. Complexity, Conflict, and Constraints. Characteristics of Decision Makers, 141 Perceptual Ability. Cognitive Structure. Personal Values. Rationality, 143 Models of Decision Making: Departures from the Ideal, 145 Feedback Loops. Decision Stress. Information: The Raw Material of Decision Making, 148 Information Acquisition. Information Processing. The Decision, 154 After the Decision, 156 Psychological Responses. Implementation. Commitment and Entrapment. Feedback. Decision Aids, 158 Personal Involvement in Organizational Decisions, 160 Becoming Involved. Predicting and Influencing. Explaining and Defending. Summary, 162 Questions for Discussion, 163 References, 164

6 Perception 166

Stimulus Selectivity, 169 Perceiving People: Forming Impressions of Others, 171 The Self-Fulfilling Prophecy. Perceiving Performance, 181 Perceiving Poor Performance: Attributions and Actions. Perception in the Job Interview, 184 Conclusion, 186 Summary, 187 Questions for Discussion, 188 References, 188

7 Attitudes 191

What Is an Attitude?, 192 Components of an Attitude, 193 The Affective Component. The Cognitive Component. The Behavioral Component. Dimensions of Attitudes, 196 The Consistency Principle, 199 Beliefs → Feelings, Behavior. Behavior → Beliefs, Feelings. Feelings → Beliefs. Do Attitudes Predict Behavior? 203 Where Do Attitudes Come From? 205 Functions Served by Attitudes, 206 The Process of Changing Attitudes, 209 Arousal and Change of Adjustment Attitudes. Arousal and Change of the Ego-Defensive Attitude. Arousal and Change of the Value-Expressive Attitude. Arousal and Change of the Knowledge-Function Attitude. Factors Determining the Effectiveness of Persuasion, 213 The Boomerang Effect, 217 Summary, 219 Questions for Discussion, 220 References, 220

8 Personality: Dimensions of Individual Differences 223

The Concept of Personality. Personality Measurement and Research. Are Personality Concepts Valid? 227 Personality Theory and the Manager. Approaches to Studying Personality, 230 A Motive-Based Approach. A Trait-Based Approach. Other Trait Approaches. A Belief-Based Approach. Value-Based Approaches. Conclusion, 249 Summary, 250 Questions for Discussion, 251 References, 251 Cases for Section Two 254

SECTION THREE

The Individual and the Organization: Patterns of Conflict and Accommodation 265

9 Individual Performance in Organizations 266

Motivation, 268 The Task, 272 Ability, 275 Physical Environment, 279 Role Perceptions, 283 Managing the Poor Performer, 285 Conclusion, 287 Summary, 287 Questions for Discussion, 288 References, 288

- 10 Job Motivation Programs: Methods of Application 290
 Compensation Programs, 291 Nonmonetary Motivation Programs, 297 Organizational Behavior Modification: Using Positive Reinforcement, 297 Stages in Program Development. Criticisms of OB Mod. Job Redesign, 303 Characteristics of Motivating Jobs. Stages in Program Development. Results of Job Redesign Programs. Management by Objectives, 309 The MBO Process. Assessment of MBO. Limitations of MBO. Nonmotivational Objectives of MBO. Concluding Observations, 315 Summary 316 Questions for Discussion, 316 References, 317
- 11 Punishment and Discipline in Organizations 319
 The Psychological Dynamics of Punishment, 321 The Case against Punishment, 323 Rebuttal to the Case Against Punishment, 325 Factors Determining whether Punishment Is Effective, 325 The Hot Stove Rule, 328 The Importance of Explaining the Rules, 329 Vicarious Punishment, 329 Case Study, 331 Styles of Discipline, 332 Concluding Comment, 333 Summary, 334 Questions for Discussion, 335 References, 335
- 12 Job Satisfaction 336
 What Is Job Satisfaction? 338 The Extent of Job Satisfaction in the Labor Force, 341 Recent Trends: Better or Worse? Which Groups Are Most Satisfied? Causes of Job Satisfaction, 350 Job Dissatisfaction, 354 Consequences of Job Satisfaction and Dissatisfaction, 356 Turnover. Absenteeism. Union Activity. Productivity? Is There a Case for "Satisfaction Leads to Performance"? Summary, 364 Questions for Discussion, 364 References, 365
- 13 Stress in Organizations 368
 Stress as an Everyday Term, 369 Stress as a Scientific Construct, 370 Stress and Illness, 372 Stress and Thought, 374 Emotional Stressors, 377 Frustration. Anxiety. Depression. Sources of Stress in Organizations, 386 Job Overload. Role Conflict and Ambiguity. Organizational Politics. Type A Behavior. Stress and Performance, 392 Managing Stress, 395 Conclusion, 397 Summary, 398 Questions for Discussion, 399 References, 399
- 14 Careers 401
 Perspectives on Careers, 402 The Importance of Careers. Career Success and Failure. Responsibility for Career Management. Career Progressions, 404 Hall and Nougaim's Stages of Management Careers. Schein's Model of Career Movement. Early Career Decisions, 409 Choice of Occupation. Job Choice. Socialization, 411 Tasks and Problems of the Socialization Stage. Accepting the Reality of the Hu- man Organization. Dealing with Resistance to Change. Learning How to Work. Learning How to Get Ahead. Locating One's Place in the Organization. Personal Passivity. Tension between Younger and Older Managers. Loyalty Dilemmas. Ethical Dilemmas. Mutual Acceptance, 420 Events Symbolizing Organizational Acceptance. Career Management by the Organization, 422 Selection and Entry. Management of Information. Training and Development. Other Personnel Policies. Career Management by the Individual, 426 Summary, 429 Questions for Discussion, 429 References, 430 Cases for Section Three 432

SECTION FOUR

Groups and Their Leadership 457

15 Group Formation and Development 458
Why Study Groups? 459 Positive and Negative Effects of Groups. A Little History. Key Aspects of Groups, 461 Types of Groups. Informal Groups. Formal Groups. The Functions of Groups, 463 Organizational Functions. Member Functions. Attraction to Groups, 465 Comparison Level. Comparison Level of Alternatives. Social Interaction, 466 Proximity: The Beginnings of Interaction. Dyadic Interaction. Social Exchange Concepts. Unspecified Obligations. Interpersonal Attraction, 469 A Reinforcement Model. Interpersonal Rewards. Group Development, 471 Properties of Groups, 472 Cohesiveness, 473 Consequences of Cohesiveness. Causes of Cohesiveness. Building Cohesiveness. Patterns of Dependence, 477 Independence. Interdependence. Rewards. Group Goals and Norms, 480 Group Goals. Group Norms. Roles, Leaders, and Status, 481 Task Specialist. Maintenance Specialist. Status. Group Influence on Individuals, 484 Attitudes. Behavior. Analyzing Group Norms. Individual Differences. Task Performance. Social Loafing and Free Riding. Other Influences. Summary, 493 Questions for Discussion, 494 References, 494

16 Group Performance 496
A Model and an Example of Work Group Productivity, 497 Group Effectiveness. Task Demands. Resources. Group Process. Decision-Making Groups, 502 Group Resources for Decision Making. Group Process in Decision Making, 505 Process Liabilities. Groupthink. Group Shifts. Managing Decision Groups: Capitalizing on Group Assets and Minimizing Process Losses, 509 Two Differing Processes: Problem Solving versus Persuasion. The Role of the Leader. The Role of Group Members. Structural Mechanisms for Introducing Formalized Conflict. Alternatives to Interacting Groups. Managing a Meeting. Managing

Relationships between Groups, 517 Conflict between Groups. Tactics of Conflict Relationships. Patterns of Work Group Relationships. Summary, 524 Questions for Discussion, 525 References, 526

17 Power, Influence, and Politics in Organizations 527
 Misconceptions about Control in Organizations, 528 Authority in Organizations, 530 Sources of Power, 533 Legitimacy. Control over Resources. Expertise. Social Relationships. Personal Characteristics. Assessing Power, 538 Status Symbols. Symbols of Actual Influence. Consequences of Power. Representational Indicators. Behavioral Symptoms of Powerlessness. Organizational Politics: The Pursuit and Use of Power, 541 Organizational Politics and the Individual. The Political Process. Political Tactics, 544 Tactics of Downward Control. Tactics of Upward Influence. Tactics of Lateral Influence. Political Games. Perpetuating Power, 549 Conclusion, 550 Summary, 551 Questions for Discussion, 551 References, 552

18 Leadership 554
 The Paradigm of Leadership Theory and Research, 557 Leader Attributes, 558 Leader Behavior, 561 The Participation Controversy, 566 Contingency Theories of Leader Behavior, 571 Fiedler's Contingency Model. Path-Goal Theory. The Vroom-Yetton Model. Substitutes for Leadership. A Functional Analysis of Leader Behavior. Other Developments in Leadership Theory, 586 The Reciprocal Causality Question. The Vertical Dyad Linkage Model. Is Leadership a Myth? 589 Summary, 590 Questions for Discussion, 591 References, 592 Cases for Section Four 595

SECTION FIVE

Organizations: The Bigger Picture 605

19 Organizations: Internal Structure 606
 Structure Defined, 607 Functions of Structure, 608 The Evolution of Structure, 609 The Bureaucracy, 611 Principles of Bureaucratic Structure, 612 Technology and Structure, 616 Bureaucracy and Professionals, 622 Conclusion, 624 Summary, 625 Questions for Discussion, 625 References, 626

20 Organizations: The External Environment 627
 The Environment, 628 Dimensions of Organizational Environments, 631 Complexity. Rate of Change. Uncertainty. Beneficence. Implications for Organizations. Subsystem Environments, 635 Organization Boundaries, 637 Boundary Roles, 639 The Turbulent Environment, 642 The Evolution of New Structural Forms, 645 Summary, 649 Questions for Discussion, 650 References, 650

21	Organizational Change and Development	652
	Antecedents of Change, 654 Barometers of Declining Effectiveness.
	Change in Corporate Strategy. Crisis. Personal Goals. Resistance to Change, 656 Reasons for Resistance. The Politics of Change. Over-
	coming Resistance to Change. The Psychology of Change, 660
	Changing the Situation versus Changing the People, 661
	Programs for Changing Behavior in Organizations, 662 Chang-
	ing Personnel. Management Development Programs. Survey Feedback.
	Quality Circles. Organizational Development. The Roots of OD. The
	Process of OD. The Effectiveness of OD. Institutionalizing and Diffusing
	Change, 671 Assessing Organization Change Programs, 673 Effects
	of the Change Program. Validity of the Change Program. Valuation
	of the Change Program. Conclusion, 677 Summary, 677 Questions for Discussion, 678 References, 678 Cases for Section Five 680

AUTHOR INDEX	689
---------------------	------------

SUBJECT INDEX	694
----------------------	------------