

CONTENTS

List of contributors	x
Climate justice and community renewal: an introduction Brian Tokar	1
PART I
Climate impacts, extractivism, and land defense	17
1 The climate abuse of climate inaction Nnimmo Bassey	19
2 Grassroots megadam resistance at Muskrat Falls, Labrador Alexis Lathem	26
3 Petroleum and eucalyptus monoculture in Brazil: the vicious cycle of climate change Marcelo Calazans	39
4 Moving away from state and capital: climate change, hegemony and resistance in Indian forests Soumitra Ghosh	51

5	Sea level rise, Marshall Islands and environmental justice Christina Gerhardt	70
6	Resistance is fertile: direct action vs. fossil fuels across North America Scott Parkin	82
7	Resistance to REDD: lessons from the ground Winnie Overbeek	95
8	African climate justice: articulations and activism Mithika Mwenda and Patrick Bond	108
PART II
	Reclaiming community: toward a livable future	129
9	Hurricane María, agroecology, and climate change resiliency Nelson Álvarez Febles and Georges F. Félix	131
10	Small is beautiful: new geographies of cooperation to face water scarcity in Cochabamba, Bolivia Stefano Archidiacono and Marcela Olivera	147
11	The unsettling of Detroit Shea Howell and Thomas Stephens	161
12	Indigenous Just Transition: reflections from the field Tom Goldtooth	179
13	An ecofeminist perspective on the just transition from capitalism to commons Terran Giacomini	194
14	“Green city” initiatives in Europe Karl-Ludwig Schibel	206

15 Energy democracy in the northeastern US: case studies from New York State Kelly Roache	222
Conclusion: connecting climate change resistance, disruption, and survival Tamra Gilbertson	236
Index	247