

Contents

---

Introduction	xi
PART I The Rhythms of the Earth	1
The Mother of All Things	3
1 Man, the Earth and the Cosmos	4
Awareness of the Environment	4
The Reservoir of Nature	5
'Signatures': A Network of Correspondences	6
Man the Microcosm	7
The Body as Hinge	9
2 Daughter, Wife and Mother	10
The Periods	10
Barren Earth	15
Before it is too Late	18
3 What if No Child Appears?	26
Nature Reawakened	26
Where do Babies Come From?	31
4 The Cycle of Life	34
The Span of Life	34
Time of Year, Time of Life	35
Reception and Conception	36
Souls of Ancestral Children	39
PART II Pregnancy: A Time of Hope, Suffering and Anxiety	43
5 The Body in Pregnancy	46
When a Woman is With Child	46

viii Contents

	The Seed Within the Body	50
	Cravings and Imaginings	53
	The Womb, Rind of the Fruit	58
	The Duration of Pregnancy	61
6	The Experience of Pregnancy	66
	Fears of the Pregnant Woman	66
	Helpful and Protective Measures	68
	Hygiene During Pregnancy	76
	The Pregnant Woman and Other People	84
	The Longed-for Child	86
	Waiting for a Dauphin	91
PART III	The Woman Giving Birth	93
7	The Society of Birth	96
	A Place to be Born	96
	Feminine Solidarity	99
	The 'Good Mother'	103
8	Hastening the Hour of Deliverance	112
	Preparing for the Confinement	112
	The Woman in Labour: Differences in Behaviour	119
	Positions	121
	Get It Over Quickly	133
PART IV	Between Mother and Child	139
9	Birth: A Double Liberation	141
	Deliverance, 'Bringing to Bed'	142
	'Captivating the Womb'	144
	Birth and Sexual Symbolism	145
	Christian Practices, Traditional Practices: A Case of Osmosis	146
10	Suffering to Give Life	150
	'Suffering in Childbed'	150
	The Causes of Pain	151
	'Lessening the Pain'	152
	Pain as a Symbol of Motherhood	155
	And the Baby Suffers Too	155
11	Stages in the Delivery	157
	The Midwife's Way of Doing Things	157
	'Preparing the Navel-string'	160
	Bringing Out the Afterbirth	162
12	The Placenta: Double of the Child	165
	Instinctive Repugnance?	165
	The Placenta Does Exist	166
	What is to be Done with the Placenta?	167

Placental Opothrapy	168
'The Fertile Cake'	170
13 The Governance of Mother and Child	173
Care of the Child	173
Resuscitating a Baby	175
Post-partum Care	178
Diet for the New Mother	180
Should a New Mother be Allowed to Sleep?	181
A Part of Oneself	181
PART V The Socialization of the Child	185
14 Welcoming the New Baby	188
Universal Rejoicing	188
Protecting the Child from Harmful Spells	194
Foreseeing the Future	196
'Born with a Caul'	200
Born Feet First	202
Birthmarks	203
Preparing for the Future	203
15 Socializing the Child: Giving a Name	205
Giving the Name	205
The Forename, a Family Heirloom	208
Names and Resonances	209
Forenames Are Not What They Were	210
PART VI The Divagations of Nature	213
16 The Falling of the Flower	216
The Silence and the Fear	216
'So Small, So Human'	219
The Time of Miscarriage	219
Prevention and Cure	220
17 The Unripe Fruit	222
Born Before Term	222
Premature Birth, Honour and Inheritance	223
How Many Premature Children? How Many Survived?	224
18 Unnatural Delivery	226
The Unforeseen Drama	226
Who is Responsible?	229
Marked for Life	232
Delivery Without the Mother	234
19 Death, the Greatest Aberration	238
Death Took Her Suddenly	238
The Child Did Not Live	239

x Contents

Death at a Later Stage	242
The Black Death of Mothers	245
A Flower Nipped in the Bud	251
Acceptance of Death?	252
20 Where Does the Beast End and Man Begin?	255
Hernias and Whooping Cough	255
Imperfect Beings	257
Showing Off the Monster	259
Changes in the Image of the Monster	261
Variety of Nature, Unity of Being	266
Conclusion	270
Notes	273
Further Reading	306