

Contents

List of Tables and Figures	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii

Introduction: A Reader's Guide	1
Use of the Handbook.....	1
Materials for Training and Practice.....	4
Supplementary Materials.....	4

Part 1: Basic Understandings

1. Interactive Bibliotherapy: A Definition.....	9
Schools of Thought About Bibliotherapy	10
Comprehensive Features of Bibliotherapy	12
Definition of Bibliotherapy.....	17
Listening in Bibliotherapy	18
2. The Goals of Bibliotherapy	23
Improving the Capacity to Respond.....	25
Increasing Self-Understanding	30
Clarifying Personal Relationships.....	33
Enlarging Reality Orientation	36
Using the Goals.....	38
3. The Bibliotherapeutic Process	42
The Bibliotherapeutic Process Versus Education and Therapy.....	43
Literature as a Catalyst in the Bibliotherapeutic Process	44
Step One: Recognition.....	44

Step Two: Examination.....	49
Step Three: Juxtaposition.....	50
Step Four: Application to Self	52
Bibliotherapy as a Process	54
Effectiveness of the Bibliotherapeutic Process.....	57
Importance of Strengths in the Bibliotherapeutic Process	58
 Part 2: Literature: The Tool of Bibliotherapy
4. Criteria for Choosing Bibliotherapeutic Materials	63
Thematic Considerations	66
Stylistic Dimensions.....	72
Applying the Criteria	76
Gauging the Potential of Bibliotherapeutic Materials.....	77
5. Strategic Choice of Bibliotherapeutic Materials	82
Responsibility for Choice of Bibliotherapeutic Materials.....	84
Influence of Participants' Life Circumstances on Choice of Bibliotherapeutic Materials	86
Strategies Pertaining to Genre and Media.....	93
Conclusion	96
6. Resources and the Management of Bibliotherapeutic Materials	99
Sources for Bibliotherapeutic Materials	100
Identification of Bibliotherapeutic Materials	102
Selected References for Locating Bibliotherapeutic Materials.....	109
 Part 3: The Bibliotherapist
7. Personal Traits of the Bibliotherapist	117
Empathy.....	118
Respect	121
Genuineness	123
Personal Characteristics.....	126
8. The Bibliotherapist's Responsibilities	131
General Procedural Decisions	132
Selection and Screening: Clinical Bibliotherapy.....	134
Recruitment and Screening: Developmental Bibliotherapy	136
Logistical Responsibilities	139

Social Boundaries.....	141
Therapeutic Boundaries	145
9. Strategies for Facilitating a Bibliotherapy Session	150
Basic Model for Introducing Materials
Chosen by the Bibliotherapist	151
Modified Model for Use of Audiovisual Material	152
Modified Model for Use of Warm-ups and
Complementary Material	152
Selections Made by Participants.....	157
Selections Made Outside the Group	159
Interventions in the Dialogue	160
Overview of Strategic Considerations	170
10. Facilitating Creative Writing	173
Creative Writing and the Bibliotherapeutic Process	175
Major Forms of Creative Writing.....	179
Resources.....	188
 Part 4: The Participant
11. Analyzing the Role of the Participant	195
Task-Supportive Functions	196
Nonproductive Roles in the Dialogue	198
Analyzing the Participant's Responses	199
Conclusion	213
12. Dynamics of the Group in Bibliotherapy	216
Bibliotherapy as a Group Process.....	217
Dynamics Characteristic of Stages in a Group.....	223
 Afterword	233
 Appendixes
A. Listening Exercises	237
B. Bibliotherapists' Records	242
C. Professional Organizations.....	247
 Bibliography of Professional Literature.....	249
Bibliotherapeutic Materials Cited.....	262
Index	265