

CONTENTS

List of Figures	xi
Abbreviations and Conventions	xiii
Notes on Contributors	xvii

Introduction: Law, Literature, and History	1
LORNA HUTSON

PART I TEXTUAL AND INTERPRETATIVE CULTURE

1. Forensic Rhetoric and Humanist Education	23
KATHY EDEN
2. Idiosyncratic Books and Common Learning: Readings on Statutes at the Inns of Court	41
MARGARET MCGLYNN
3. Common Law Scholarship and the Written Word	61
IAN WILLIAMS
4. 'Attentive Mindes and Serious Wits': Legal Training and Early Drama	80
JAMES MCBAIN
5. Why Shylocke Loses His Case: Judicial Rhetoric in The Merchant of Venice	97
QUENTIN SKINNER

PART II LITERATURE AND THE LEGAL PROFESSION 1500-1700

6. Legal Satire and the Legal Profession in the 1590s: John Davies's Epigrammes and Professional Decorum	121
JESSICA WINSTON

7. The Emblem Book and Common Law 142
PETER GOODRICH
8. The Monarchical Republic, Constitutionality, and the Legal Profession 163
PAUL RAFFIELD
9. The Legal Masque: Humanity and Liberty at the Inns of Court 180
MARTIN BUTLER
10. Paradise Lost? Law, Literature, and History in Restoration England 198
CHRISTOPHER BROOKS

PART III ADMINISTERING THE LAW

11. Law Enforcement and the Local Community 221
JAMES SHARPE
12. The Changing Persona of the Justices and their Quarter Sessions 239
NORMA LANDAU
13. Law and the Evidentiary Environment 257
BARBARA J. SHAPIRO
14. Legal Reform and 2 Henry IV 277
VIRGINIA LEE STRAIN

PART IV TEMPORAL AND SPIRITUAL, LAW AND CONSCIENCE

15. Immunities and Monasticism: Bale to Shakespeare 301
JOSHUA PHILLIPS
16. Epieikeia and Conscience 320
ALAN CROMARTIE
17. The Ecclesiastical Polity 337
ETHAN H. SHAGAN
18. Making Law and Recording It: John Selden on Excommunication 353
JASON P. ROSENBLATT
19. Seldenism 372
ELLIOTT VISCONSI

PART V LEGAL AND LITERARY IMAGINING

20. Contract 393
LUKE WILSON
21. Contract and Conjuality in Early Modern England 410
TIM STRETTON
22. The Literary Thing: The Imaginary Holding of Isabella Whitney's
'Wyll' to London (1573) 431
CAROLYN SALE
23. Witch Wives 450
FRANCES E. DOLAN
24. Corporate Persons, between Law and Literature 467
HENRY S. TURNER

PART VI LIBEL, PUBLICATION, AND THE PRESS

25. Edward Coke, Roman Law, and the Law of Libel 487
DAVID IBBETSON
26. Censorship in Law and Practice in Seventeenth-Century
England: Milton's Areopagitica 507
JOAD RAYMOND
27. Managing the Later Stuart Press, 1662–1696 529
MARTIN DZELZAINIS
28. The Torture of John Felton, 1628 548
ALASTAIR BELLANY

PART VII LIBERTIES, SLAVERIES, AND ENGLISH LAW

29. From Sovereignty to the State: The Tragicomic Clemency of Massinger's The Bondman 569
BERNADETTE MEYLER
30. Birthrights and the Due Course of Law 587
PAUL D. HALLIDAY

31. Legal Agency as Literature in the English Revolution:
The Case of the Levellers 604
NIGEL SMITH
32. Base Slavery and Roman Yoke 624
MARY NYQUIST

PART VIII THE EXTRA-ENGLISH LEGAL WORLD: BETWEEN COLONY, NATION, AND EMPIRE

33. Spenser, Plowden, and the Hypallactic Instrument 649
ANDREW ZURCHER
34. Law and Literature in Scotland, c.1450–1707 667
ROBERT A. HOUSTON
35. Forensic History: Henry V and Scotland 687
LORNA HUTSON
36. Henry V, Anachronism, and the History of International Law 709
CHRISTOPHER N. WARREN
37. Empire and Natural Law in Dryden's Heroic Drama 728
EDWARD HOLBERTON
38. English Liberties outside England: Floors, Doors, Windows, and Ceilings in the Legal Architecture of Empire 747
DANIEL J. HULSEBOSCH
- Index* 773