

Contents

List of contributors	VIII
List of maps, figures and tables	X
1 Introduction Max Barlow, Petr Dostál and Martin Hampl	1
THE CZECH LANDS AND THE LIBEREC REGION	19
2 Long-term trends in the settlement system Martin Hampl	21
3 Demographic transition and contemporary population development Zdeněk Pavlík, Tomáš Kučera and Martin Hampl	31
4 Industrialization and regional industrial structures Ludvík Kopačka	41
5 Changing land-use patterns in Liberec and Jablonec districts Ivan Bičík and Vít Štěpánek	57
ADMINISTRATION AND POLICY-MAKING IN THE CZECH REPUBLIC	65
6 Towards a new Czech regional policy Jan Kára	67
7 Local financing and settlement structure Jiří Blažek	85

8	The new local politics after the 1990 local reform: councillors, mayors and citizens Michal Illner and Daniel Hanšpach	95
9	Administrative issues at the elementary level: Liberec municipality Zdeněk Kadlas, Petr Dostál and Martin Hampl	111
	INTERNATIONAL VIEWPOINTS: SELECTED PROBLEMS	121
10	Issues and problems of fragmentation in local and regional administration Max Barlow	123
11	Regional restructuring, local government and small firms sector in England Roy Murphy	135
12	Alternative structures of chambers of commerce in Great Britain Peter Wicks	153
13	Environmental policy-making at national and local level: a Dutch example Jan Groenendijk and Herman van der Wusten	163
14	Migration processes in Europe and their regional impact: scenarios for the Liberec region Leszek Kosiński	179
	TOWARDS A SYNTHESIS	189
15	Development of an urban system: general conception and specific features in the Czech Republic Petr Dostál and Martin Hampl	191
16	Conclusions: further research directions Petr Dostál and Martin Hampl	225